

Courtney Anne Lee
Dunham-Rosmann, 31

June 2, 1985 - Dec. 27, 2016

EUGENE, OR – Courtney Dunham was born June 2, 1985 in Seoul, South Korea. She graduated from Sheldon High School in 2003; Spanish Immersion Program in Eugene, OR. She earned her Undergraduate Degree in Biology at the University of Puget Sound, Tacoma, WA, and her Master's in Public Health (MPH) at The George Washington University in 2013. Courtney enjoyed tennis, running, bicycling, hiking, organizing volunteer events, career mentoring, traveling all around the world and outdoor activities with friends.

She was a Peace Corps Volunteer as a Protected Areas Management Specialist in Honduras from 2007-2009. From 2010-2011 she worked for USAID/Honduras in Strategy and Program Support. She was on the Board of Directors of the Returned Peace Corps Volunteers of Washington, D.C. (RPCV/W) from 2011-2015. Courtney married Mark Rosmann on Nov. 23, 2016, in Washington, D.C.

Courtney Anne Lee Dunham Rosmann of Washington, D.C., died Dec. 27, 2016, of Non-Hodgkin's Lymphoma at her family home in Eugene, OR.

She is survived by her husband Mark Rosmann, Washington, D.C., parents Curtis and Janet Dunham, Eugene, OR, brother Brian Dunham, Eugene, OR, twin sister Leslie Dunham, Denver, CO, and Ron and Maria Rosmann, Harlan. A private family service was held Dec. 30, 2016, in Eugene, OR.