

Keith A. Segebart, 29

DENISON - Keith A. Segebart, son of George and Viola Neubauer Segebart, was born in Denison, June 23, 1959 and died at the Myrtue Memorial Hospital in Harlan on Oct. 23, 1988 at age 29 years.

He grew to manhood in the Deloit area, attending the Deloit school and graduating from the Denison Community High School with the class of 1978. During his schooling he worked part time as a janitor in the Kiron and Denison schools. In May of 1979, he obtained employment with Farmland Foods in Denison, where he was employed at the time of his death. Jan. 23, 1982, he married Angela Foster of Denison. They made their home in Denison until moving to Harlan. He was a member of the Pioneer Southern Baptist Church in Denison where he was a Sunday school teacher and enjoyed working with the young children. He also enjoyed working with wood and was an avid flower gardener.

He was preceded in death by his father, George and a sister, Bernice, as a small child. Survivors include his wife Angela of Harlan; one step-daughter, Sarah A. Foster at home; his mother, Viola Segebart of Deloit; brothers, Ervin Segebart of Winton, CA; Glenn Segebart of Ida Grove and Roger Segebart of Independence, MO; three sisters, Alyce Mae (Mrs George) Berndt of Denison; Joyce (Mrs Larry) Wiegel of Charter Oak and Elaine (Mrs Rodney) Bassett of Appleton, WI; and his parents-in-law, Mr and Mrs Milton Foster of Dunlap.

Funeral services were held Oct. 26, 1988 at the Huebner Funeral Home in Denison with Pastor Don Slatton officiating. Burial was in the Crawford Heights Memory Gardens in Denison with Mike Burg, John Kelly, Larry Wiegel, Dennis Segebart, Rodney Bassett and Joe Fong serving as casket bearers. Funeral arrangements were made by Huebner Funeral Home, Denison.