

Harlan, Iowa Tribune

Tuesday September 8, 1992, pg. 9-A

Harry A. Simmons, 81

SHELBY — Harry A. Simmons, 81, Shelby, died Aug. 30, 1992, at Jennie Edmundson Hospital, following an extended illness. Born in Pisgah, he has lived most of his lifetime in Co. Bluffs and the past 18 years in Shelby. He was a locomotive engineer for the Illinois Central Railroad working 32 years before his retirement in 1975. He was a member of the RLDS Church and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. He and his wife, Agnes would have been married 60 years this coming Jan.

Other survivors besides his wife, Agnes include one son, Merle of Farragut; and one daughter, Marlene Nielsen of Harlan; sister, Vera Stewart of San Marcos, CA.; nine grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Sept. 3, 1992 at the Meyer Funeral Home Chapel. Elder Charles Angeroth, R.L.D.S. Church, Crescent, officiated. Cremation will follow the funeral service and burial of the cremains in the Preparation cemetery near Pisgah. Meyer Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.