

Harlan, Iowa News Advertiser
Friday August 28, 1992, pg. 11-A

Peggy Ann Simms, 38

Feb. 20, 1954 — July 26, 1992

CORNING — Peggy Ann Simms, the daughter of Melville and Helen (Griffith) Olive, was born Feb. 20, 1954, in Corning. She died at St. Joseph's Hospital in Omaha, NE., July 26, 1992, at age 38 years, 5 months and 6 days. She attended school at the Corning High School and later attended beauty schools in Des Moines and Shenandoah. She moved to Harlan in 1976 and this has been her home since that time. She was a member of the Spouses Auxiliary of the Iowa National Guard. Dec. 31, 1984, she married Burton Simms in Harlan.

She was preceded in death by her father, Melville Olive; one half-brother, Carlton Olive and her grandparents. She was survived by her husband Burton of Salem, AR.; one daughter, Angela Frieze of Harlan; her mother, Helen Olive, Harlan; one step-son, Mark Simms of Cherokee; one step-daughter, Ramona Lucius of TX.; two half sisters, Jean Victor of West Minister, CO., and Kay Harken of Denver, CO.; a half-brother, Russell Olive of Corning; six step-grandchildren; and other relatives.

Funeral services were held July 30, 1992, at the Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan with Rev. Al Hazelton of the First Assembly of God Church in Harlan, officiating. Burial was in the Oakhill cemetery in Corning with Don Simms, John DeVold, Terry Clyde, LeRoy Miller, Fred Griffen, and Marvin W. Martin serving as casketbearers. Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan in charge of arrangements.