Frank Stessman

Frank Stessman, 86, of Earling, died Wednesday at the Harlan Hospital.

He was a lifelong resident of the Earling community. Stessman retired from farming in 1973 and moved into the city of Earling. He lived at the Little Flower Haven Care Center in Earling since January.

Stessman was a member of St. Joseph Church of Earling, and a member of the following organizations: Council 1741, Knights of Columbus of Earling, Luke E. Hart, General Assembly 4th Degree, and its Chalice Club, both of Defiance.

Surviving are two brothers, Leonard and Adolph, both of Earling; three sisters, Veronica Stessman of Earling, Clara Bormann of St. Joseph, Iowa, and Sister Thea, OSS, of Milwaukee, Minn.

A funeral Mass will be celebrated at 11 a.m. Friday at St. Joseph Church with the Rev. Gerald Stessman of Guthrie Center, nephew of Stessman, the celebrant. Interment will be in the St. Joseph Cemetery there.

Wake services will be at 8 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday at the Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan.
