

STRACKE, Alfons
2055

Harlan Co. News Advertiser
Sat. April 1, 1987 - pg 5A
Westphalia News

Many relatives and friends attended the wake and funeral of Alfonse Stracke at St. Patrick's Church in Perry. Alfonse was the son of Henry and Mary Stracke and a native of Westphalia. He is fondly remembered for a famous ballgame, when he became a "hero" to the hometown folks. The game took place during one of the parish picnics in the early 1930s, when he was a young man living here.

Harlan Co. News Advertiser
Sat. March 19, 1987 - pg 5A

STRACKE, Alfons

Alfons Stracke of Perry died March 10 at the Perry Nursing Home. Alfons was a former Shelby County resident.

He is survived by his sons and daughters of the Perry area, and his brother, Leonard Stracke of Harlan, Joe Stracke of Omaha, Nub Stracke of Council Bluffs, Bernard Stracke of Defiance, Laurina Schmitz of Portsmouth, Marie Nufria of Richmond, IN., Bernadine Assman of Phoenix, AZ., and numerous nieces and nephews.