

James Swisher, 51

Dec. 1, 1960 - Sept. 18, 2012

HARLAN — James Wesley Swisher was born on December 1, 1960 to Jim and Sharon Swisher in Harlan. Three years later, the family moved to Chariton where he attended Kindergarten. They moved back to the Shelby area where James graduated from Shelby High School with the Class of 1979.

James was united in marriage to Kelly McGurrern and had four sons: Brandon, Brent, Brock, and Bryce. James worked at REM Leadway in Shelby before going to Farmland in Denison. He was employed there for twenty years. James loved cooking and always thought he would have loved to become a chef. James died on Tuesday, September 18, 2012 at his home in Harlan.

James was preceded in death by his infant son, Bryce. He is survived by his sons Brandon Swisher and Brent Swisher both of Avoca, and Brock Swisher and his wife Jessica of Omaha, NE, four grandchildren and one on the way; his father Jim Swisher and his wife Ann of Wasilla, AK, his mother Sharon Attanasio of Shelby; sister Julie and her husband Randy Pauley of Pompano Beach, FL; half brothers Eric Swisher and his wife Mary of Wasilla, AK and Darren Swisher of Indianapolis, IN; other family members and friends.

Dave Anderson officiated the 10:30 a.m. Memorial Service on Tuesday, September 25, 2012 at the Central Church of Christ in Griswold. Honorary casket bearers were Brandon Swisher, Brent Swisher, Brock Swisher, and Randy Pauley. Inurnment was held at the Oakwood Cemetery in Lewis.

*Pauley
&
Jones*

FUNERAL HOME & CREMATORY
(712) 755-3135 • (800) 831-6805
www.pauleyjones.com
Baldwin at 9th, Harlan, IA
Also in Avoca & Walnut