Man killed 1987 in accident at Denison plant

DENISON — Ken Washburn, 25, Hornick, died Dec. 29 at Marian Health Center, Sioux City, from injuries sustained in a semi-tractor accident at IBP, Inc., in Denison.

Authorities said Washburn had parked a '75 International Transtor II tractor at IBP and got out of the truck. He then walked over to John Olmstead, a 25-year-old Denison man, who was seated in a parked tractor. While Washburn spoke to Olmstead, the unattended tractor rolled ahead into the side of the Olmstead vehicle and hit Washburn, pinning him between the two vehicles.
