

Anna M. Wégner, 91

July 3, 1900 — Sept. 24, 1991

HARLAN — Anna Maria Wegner, daughter of Adolph and Manna Maria (Reick) Domhan, was born July 3, 1900, in Esslingen, Germany. She died Sept. 24, 1991, at Myrtue Memorial Hospital in Harlan, at age 91 years, two months and 21 days. She was educated in Esslingen, and then attended two years of college at the University of Stuttgart where she earned a teacher's certificate. She then taught kindergarten at Esslingen until the summer of 1920, when she came to America to live with her uncle and aunt, Joe Oppolds in Panama.

May 31, 1922, she married Frank Wegner at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Earling. They lived on a rented farm near Panama. In 1924, a fire broke out in the night burning their farm home, along with all of Anna's family heirlooms. In 1938, they bought a 160 acre farm, and this is where they lived and farmed until 1951, when they purchased their home in Panama. After the death of Frank April 21, 1960, she continued to make her home in Panama until July 30, 1985, when she became a resident of the Baptist Memorial Home in Harlan. She was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Panama.

In addition to her parents and husband; she was preceded in death by a sister, Emily McGarry, and a brother, Alban Domhan. Surviving her is a step-sister, Helen (Mrs Richard) Van Voorkis of Pleasant Valley, N.Y.; a step-niece, Anita (Mrs Bert) Wolf; other nieces and nephews.

A Mass of Christian burial was concelebrated Sept. 26, 1991, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Panama with Rev. Chuck Kottas celebrant and Rev. Don Bruck, concelebrating. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery with Allen Bruck, Phil Wegner, Bob Huebert, Ken Brinker, Jan Randall and Bud Chamberlain casketbearers. Pauley Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.
