

Edna M. Wohlhutter, 78

KIRKMAN - Edna May Wohlhutter, daughter of Lloyd C. and Anna (Sick) Croft was born on a farm near Kirkman on May 6, 1910. She died at the University of Nebraska Medical Center, Omaha on Sept. 28, 1988 at age 78 years, four months and 22 days. She attended Kirkman Consolidated School graduating in the class of 1927, and then attended Iowa State College in Ames, graduating in 1931.

On Sept. 2, 1931, she married Clarence Wohlhutter at First Lutheran Church in Omaha. One son, Bernard, was born to this union. After residing for several years in Corley, they moved to a farm east of Kirkman in 1940 where they lived for the next 15 years. They then moved to Rabbit Hollow east of Harlan until 1969, when they moved back to a farm east of Kirkman. In 1972, they moved to Walnut, where they lived until Dec., 1986, when they moved to Harlan, their home since that time. They were privileged to have celebrated their 57th wedding anniversary this Sept.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by two brothers, George and John and her son, Bernard in 1982. She is survived by her husband, Clarence of Harlan; a daughter-in-law, Dolores Wohlhutter of Harlan; a sister-in-law, Jewell Payton of Harlan; four grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were Oct. 1, 1988 at Pauley Funeral Home with Pastor George Gibson of First United Methodist Church in Harlan officiating. Burial was in Rose Hill cemetery, Kirkman with Keith Fiscus, Ray H. Larson, Forrest Adams, Archie Petersen, Terry McDowell and Gaylord Heilisen as casket bearers.
