

Richard Wagner, 77 ✓

March 20, 1935 - July 13, 2012

DES MOINES — Richard George Wagner, West Des Moines, son of Joe and Anne Wagner, was born on March 20, 1935 in Des Moines. He passed away on Friday, July 13, 2012 at Kavanagh House surrounded by many longtime friends.

Richard was preceded in death by both parents and his brothers Phil and Robert.

Visitation and the Mass of Christian Burial was held at Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Des Moines. Holy Trinity is located at 2926 Beaver Avenue. The visitation was held from 5:00 to 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, July 17, 2012 at Holy Trinity Catholic Church. The wake service was at 6:30 p.m. Mass of Christian Burial was held on Wednesday, July 18, 2012 at Holy Trinity Catholic Church beginning at 11:00 a.m. and celebrated by Father Michael Amadeo. Richard was buried in a private ceremony at Glendale Cemetery in Des Moines.

Richard had worked for the Diocese of Des Moines for 43 years serving the people of southwestern Iowa. He loved to travel with close friends and to share his travel adventures with those he worked with and served.

Memorial contributions can be made to Holy Trinity Church & School, Dowling Catholic High School or Holy Family School. Online condolences may be made to www.caldwellraddatz.com.

Caldwell-Raddatz
Funeral Home

8201 Hickman Road
Urbandale, IA 50322

info@caldwellraddatz.com
515-276-0551