

Harlan, Iowa News Advertiser, Friday June 10, 2011, pg 6-A

Marjorie Walsh, 58

June 5, 1952 - May 18, 2011

OVERLAND, MO – Marjorie Ann (Reinig) Walsh was born in Harlan June 5, 1952 to Robert and Virginia (Leinen) Reinig. She was baptized and confirmed at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Portsmouth. She graduated from Harlan Community High School with the class of 1970. In 1974, Marge graduated from Mount St. Scholastica College in Atchison, KS majoring in French. Marge has three children, Joe, Dana and Nick. She worked in the insurance industry in St. Louis, MO. She was a member of All Souls Parish in Overland, MO, and was very active in fund raising projects for the catholic school, especially trivia night programs. Marge formed many lasting friendships with the "Church Ladies". She was also an avid Cardinal fan and enjoyed softball, racquetball and swimming. She enjoyed spending time with her children and grandchildren, entertaining Iowa guests and traveling to Iowa and with her Iowa family. Marge was famous for her "puppy chow" and for "Margecicles" enjoyed with friends. Marge died suddenly at her home in Overland, MO, on May 18, 2011 at age 58.

Marge was preceded in death by her sisters Geri Ann and Ann as well as her dad, Robert, and brother Larry. She is survived by her children Joe and his wife Lisa of Shawnee, KS, Dana and her husband Gabe Kiley of St. Louis, MO, and Nick and his wife Ashley of Maryland Heights, MO; two grandchildren, Marissa Kiley and Carsen Walsh; her mother Virginia Reinig of Portsmouth, a brother Duane (Linda) Reinig and sisters Lois (Jim) Crawford of Portsmouth, and Sharon (Terry) Kohles of Omaha, and sister-in-law Donna Reinig of Omaha; many other relatives and friends.

Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated at All Souls Church in Overland, MO, with interment at St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery in Portsmouth May 24, 2011.