

Margaret Wilwerding Domino, 77

Jan. 7, 1921 - April 20, 1998

SIERRA MADRE, CA - Margaret Celia Wilwerding Domino was born to Matt and Barbara (Engel) Domino Jan. 7, 1921, in Westphalia.

June 8, 1943, she married Jerold Wilwerding in St. Boniface Church in Westphalia. They moved to El Paso, TX and later Jerold was in the military in Australia. After World War II Margaret joined him at Hickman Field which borders Pearl Harbor then to Tokyo, Japan and Washington, D.C. Margaret was a mother and homemaker and considered this a great contribution to life. They moved to California in 1968 and in 1993 celebrated 50 years of marriage. Four months later she suffered a serious cranial accident and never recovered. She no longer was able to communicate and spent the past years at a care facility. She died at the care facility April 20, 1998, at age 77.

She is survived by her husband, Jerold of Sierra Madre, CA; Mary Jane (Harold) Schneider of Placerville, CA; Peggy (George) Leddy; Debra (Jack) Knudson of Los Alamitos, CA; Joyce (Comer) Taylor of Eureka, CA; and son, Jerold Jr. of Sierra Madre, CA; one sister, Josephine Langenfeld of Dow City, and other relatives.

Funeral services were held at St. Ritas April 23, 1998, in Sierra Madre, CA, with Msgr. Robert Gara officiating. Burial was at Sierra Madre Cemetery.
