

George Woodward III, 58

Oct. 12, 1942 – July 29, 2001

VALLEY, NE – George W. Woodward III was born in Omaha, NE, to George and Elda Woodward II. His parents were from Shelby. He was raised in Omaha. He attended Valley High School and graduated from UNL in 1965. His grandparents, Chris and Dora Dollen, lived in Shelby for several years and his other grandparents, Charlie and Mary Green, lived on and owned the first farm north of Shelby. He died of complications from surgery July 29, 2001, at Omaha, at age 58.

He is survived by his wife, Shari, of Waterloo, NE; son, Michael of Omaha; daughters, Ann (Jim) Driewer of Hampton, NE; his mother, Elda Woodward of Omaha; brother, Jim (Karen) Woodward of Menlo; sister, Suzi (Frank) Dewey of Baskingridge, NJ; grandchildren, Daniel George, Simon, Mary, Abraham, Isaac, Peter and Grace.

A family service was held Aug. 1, 2001, at the family residence with Rev. Peggy Hall, pastor of Immanuel Health Systems, officiating. A private burial service was held at the Shelby Cemetery May 25, 2002, with Pastor Peggy Hall officiating.