5. JOHN (JOHANNES)³ HAMSHER (BERNHARD² HAMBSCHER, MATTHEUS¹) was born Feb 10, 1732 in Gau Heppenheim, Germany, and died Jul 30, 1785 in York Tshp, York, Penn. The Morman Church records have both John and Anna in Lancaster, PA for death records.. He married (1) ANNA MARIA CHARLOTTA HECKERT Abt. 1752, daughter of JACOB HECKERT and AGNES HECKERT. She was born Abt. 1738 in Lebanon Tshp, Lebanon, Penn., and died Abt. 1769 in Lebanon Tshp, Lebanon, Penn.. He married (2) LYDIA HECKARD 1770 in Pennsylvania. She was born 1730 in Lebanon County, Pennsylvania, and died Unknown.

John was first found in Lebanon Township, Lancaster County, PA in Sept 1762. A land record was found that says John bought ninety-one and one half acres from Jacob Heckart for fourteen pounds and three shilling of "lawful Pennsylvania money" on September 9, 1762. This record also shows that Jacob Heckart obtained the land in 1754. On 8 December 1764 John Hamsher and his wife "Anna Charlotta" mortgaged the property to secure a lone of one hundred thirty-eight shillings and nine pence from Jacob Hecker and another man. Jacob Heckart was John's father in law. John signed the paper in German as "Johannes Hamsher" and his wife made her mark at "Charlotta Hamshier" a spelling found in the text of the agreement which is believed written by an English court official. This document is strong evidence that John was literate in German.

PG 26 - Jan 22, 1762 John Hamsher conveyed to John Adam Steiger, Frederick Walfersberger, Martin Hiller and David Harpster, two acres and twelve perches of land for burial purposes for the use of German Lutheran and Calvinist congregations. The sum paid for this land being five pounds.

The deed is located in deed book G page 544.

PG45 - John Hamsher is found in 1762 present to have children Baptized at Grubben Church and in 1765 in the Lebanon record.

PG45 - The heads of families that brought children to baptism during Mueller's ministry were as follows: Jacob Groff, Nicholas Lutz, Jacob Wabel, Michael Rap, Abraham Rohland, Felix Mueller, Henry Bauman, John Hamsher, Peter Ritschart, John Fissel, Phillip Dinges, Auren (?) Jaeckly. Jacob Grundy, and several others, whose names can not be deciphered.

Military Service: was enrolled in Captain Lowry's company of Worcester Township militia according to the lists printed in the Pennsylvania Archives for 1783 and 1786

Rev. John Frederick Schmidt, of St. Michael's Lutheran Church, Germantown, Philadelphia. The following is the record in the books of that church:

"Daniel Hamscher, Worcester, and Barbara Sperrin, same township, March 3, 1784." The German name Hamscher has been Anglicized into Homsher.

In the census of 1790 Daniel Homsher is listed as the "head of family" consisting of one white male over 16 years, one white male under 16 years and three white females.

That Daniel Homsher was a weaver in Worcester Township is shown by the docket of Frederick Conrad, justice of the peace in Worcester Township, which mentions the signing of papers in 1791 whereby George Moyer was apprenticed to Daniel Homsher "to learn the art and mystery of the weaving trade."

Note: Mary Elizabeth's stone is spelled "Hampsher", while her husband's directly beside her is spelled "Hampshire."

George Hampshire served in the York Militia, as a member of Captian Hoover's company out of the township York County, Pennsylvania during the Revolution 1776. While serving a year, he lost an eye. After his service, he then moved his family to Maryland, where he purchased 200 acres of land from one of his nephews Barnet for $1,000 that was known as "Stanbury Grove. "George continued to add to his land holdings adding "Yoder's Farm" from Henry Mesemore, which was 11 acres. Then George added an additional 13 acres. George perused, to great effect, the policy that veterans who served in the war would be granted land. Under that policy, George was granted and received 650 acres in Zanesville, Ohio that he either then sold or traded to his nephew, Barnet. This Ohio land was the key gateway for the Hampshire's to migrate to Ohio, and then across the United States.

She was born Jul 22, 1815 in Montgomery County, Ohio, and died Mar 28, 1888 in Junction City, Geary County, Kansas. Burial: Highland Cemetery, Junction City, Geary County, Kansas.

He tried to enlist in the Civil war but was unable to because of a disability.

David P. Hampshire served part of one year in Co.E, 12th Regiment of Missouri Cavalry. During the Civil War, David P. Hampshire enlisted for three years at Princeton, Mercer Co., MO on 25 September 1863 and was shortly thereafter discharged on 13 May 1864 as being unfit for active duty because of his age. It would appear that David was about 54 years of age at the time of his enlistment and that he lied about his actual age in order to satisfy his patriotic motivations in joining the military service. David was evidently separated from the service on 13 May 1864, being unable to stand the rigors of camp life. Information from Ancestry book by N.F Beam.

From book "History of Texas...1895" ,Rosenberg Library, Galveston, Texas.

"...John Hampshire, a native of Louisiana who was one of the very early residents of Texas....Smith Point..... Thirteen children, (in 1895) only three of whom survive: Mrs. John Crainer, Mrs. Charles Hughes and Mrs. (William Charles) Kahla. In the 1860 Galveston County census, John Hampshire is listed to live at Bolivar Point, Texas. JOHN HAMPSHIRE served in the Revolutionary War in the 4th Penn. regiment. Name listed under United States to John Lewis. Regiment commanded by Lt. Col. William Bulton. July 9, 1777, is enlistment date. When John Hampshire died, his wife, Elizabeth did not attend his funeral, she took all his legal papers with her and left their home. According to material of Mrs. Busbee; Lovan Hampshire is the son of John Hampshire by a woman named Julia Ellender (born 1809). Lovan was either conceived or born at place called Hackberry, Louisiana (now is Cameron Parish, formerly Calcasieu Parish). Julia Ellender afterwards married Grange E. Grammier, bearing him two children, a daughter and a son named Paschal Grammier. John Hampshire came from Louisiana to Texas.....and owned lots of land there. They owned the site of New Iberia, Louisiana. The Hampshire's lived around Placquimas and Leesville and some at Lake Charles, Louisiana. John Hampshire and many other Hampshire's were buried at Point Bolivas (Port Bolivar), Texas but hurricanes have carried off most of the gravestones."

Jane was the daughter of Jesse and Polly (Black) Devore and lived in Louisiana as a young woman. She was married about 1832 to John Hampshire, with whom she had eleven children. The family settled at Smith Point in what is now Chambers County, Texas in the late 1840s. After Jane's death in 1856, John moved the family to the Bolivar Peninsula in Galveston Co., Texas. This grave is no longer marked and much of the cemetery has washed away or eroded.

26th Regiment, Texas Cavalry (Debray's) (Davis' Mounted Battalion)

Overview:

26th Cavalry Regiment was formed in March, 1862, using the 7th Texas Cavalry Battalion as its nucleus. Its companies were from Huntsville, Houston, Lockhart, Galveston, Centerville, and Hempstead, and Leon and Walker counties. Considered to be one of the best disciplined regiments in Confederate service, it was assigned to H. Bee's and Debray's Brigade in the Trans-Mississippi

Department. The unit served along the Rio Grande and in January, 1864, contained 29 officers and 571 men. It was involved in the operations against Banks' Red River Campaign, then returned to Texas where it was stationed at Houston and later Navasota. Here the 26th disbanded in May, 1865. The field officers were Colonels Samuel B. Davis, Xavier B. Debray, and John J. Myers; Lieutenant Colonel Medard Menard; and Major George W. Owens.

38. CYNTHIA G.⁵ HAMSHER (JOHN⁴, JOHN (JOHANNES)³, BERNHARD² HAMBSCHER, MATTHEUS¹) was born Jul 07, 1800 in Allegheny County; PA, and died Nov 09, 1883 in Washington County, KS. She married SAMUEL CLAYTON Jun 27, 1819 in Richland County, Ohio. He was born Jul 13, 1798 in Virginia, and died Feb 05, 1879 in Beatrice, Gage Co, Nebraska..

Children of CYNTHIA HAMSHER and SAMUEL CLAYTON are:

- i. SARAH⁶ CLAYTON, b. Mar 12, 1820, Ohio; She married ISAAC MILLER, Feb 07, 1850, Wayne County, Ohio; b. May 24, 1818, Pendleton County, VA.

Notes for ISAAC MILLER:

Isaac Miller is a son of Isaac and Margaret (Lair) Miller, the former born in Hardy County, on Lost River, Va., October 26, 1784; the latter July 28, 1783. His parents were married in their native county and subsequently removed to Pendleton County, on the South Fork of the Potomac, where they resided until April 14, 1834, when they started for Ohio, and located on the Delaware Reserve, now within this county, where they remained two years, when they moved to the Wyandotte Reserve, near where the town of Nevada is now situated. They first leased land in 1836 of Jacob Young, a Wyandotte, on which land they resided seven years. They were the first white settlers of Eden Township; the father then purchased land-80 acres -with his son Lair, and after the death of his wife, May 29, 1845, resided with his son. He died February 21, 1862. In this family there were seven children, viz.: John, born March 20, 1808; Mary, February 1, 1810; Catharine, November 11, 1813; Elizabeth C., May 12, 1816; Isaac, May 24, 1818; Lair, February 10, 1820; Jacob, March 31, 1825. Isaac, our subject, resided with his parents till twenty-seven years of age. He was married October 10 1847, to Barbara Fredregill, daughter of James and Sarah (Weyer) Fredregill, natives of Westmoreland County, Penn. By this marriage one child was born, namely: Reuben, the date of his birth being Juno 29, 1848. His wife's decease occurring August 9, 1849, Mr. Miller was again married February 7, 1850, to Sarah Clayton, born in Wayne County, in Ohio, March 12, 1820, daughter of Samuel and Cynthia (Hampshire) Clayton, natives of Virginia and Pennsylvania respectively, of English and Welsh descent. Her parents were married in Richland County, Ohio, June 27, 1819, and later moved to Knox; then to Seneca, and then to Wyandotte County in July, 1836. Her father died February 5, 1879; her mother, November 9, 1883-both in Nebraska. After his marriage, Mr. Miller farmed rented land six years, operating a saw mill two years in the mean time. He located on his present farm August 23, 1854, purchasing first forty acres, to which he has added by subsequent purchases till he now owns eighty-five acres. His present dwelling was built originally by Dr. Greyeyes, a "medicine man" of the Wyandotte tribe, the logs having been hewn by one McGrew and John Hicks Standstone, an Indian. Mr. Miller has been a lifelong farmer, and has witnessed the growth of this county since 1834, having done much for its development. He has had several hand-to-hand combats with the "redskins," and after the strife, has partaken of their bounteous pots of pork, deer, raccoon, 'possum and skunk broth most freely. He is still quite conversant in their language and can yet give the savage war-whoop in all its weirdness and terror. He was supervisor of the Indians while they were cutting out the Osceola road from Indian Run to Rock Run, and was intimately acquainted with most of the members of the tribe. Mr. and Mrs. Miller are both members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and highly esteemed by all who know them. Mrs. Miller was a school teacher in her young days, closing her last term at noon before marriage.

Death of an Old Resident of Sparta.

Mrs. Rebecca Hamsher died at the residence of her daughter Mrs. P. J. Oberdorf in Rochester yesterday of the grip. She went there a few weeks ago and was taken sick immediately. Mrs. Hamsher was the widow of Bernard Hamsher, one of the early settlers of Sparta, who died nearly thirty years ago. She was born in Pennsylvania, her maiden name being Fleck, and she is the last of a large family, all of whom lived to be very old. Mrs. Hamsher being about 90, her sister Mrs. Susan Dippy died at the age of 93, and Mrs. Poor of Wayland being about 96 when she died. Mrs. Hamsher was remarkably active all her life and she retained all her faculties to the end. The children who survive are Mrs. Oberdorf, Mrs. Geo. Hartman of this village, Martin Hamsher of Ossian and Jonas Hamsher of Sparta. The remains will probably be brought here but we have not learned when the funeral will be held.

Children of BERNARD HAMSHER and REBECCA FLICK are:

 - i. CAROLINE E.⁶ HAMSHER, b. Dec 05, 1824, Sparta, Livingston County, New York; d. Abt. 1913, Livingston County, New York.
168.
 - ii. SUSSANAH B. HAMSHER, b. Oct 27, 1828, Sparta, Livingston County, New York; d. Jan 16, 1907, Dansville, Livingston County, New York.
169.
 - iii. JONAS S. HAMSHER, b. 1831, Sparta, Livingston County, New York; d. 1924, Livingston CO., NY..
 - iv. REBECCA HAMSHER, b. Bet. 1834 - 1836, Sparta, Livingston County, New York.

They first lived in Sparta than moved to Call Hill near Hartsville, Steuben Co.,NY, where they lived a few years. Then about 1860 they moved back to Sparta on Mr. Kiss's farm south of Reeds Corners where they lived six years then moved about a half mile west on the Whiteman farm. From there they moved to Mr. Bills farm near Perkinsville, Steuben Co.,NY, and later they purchased and moved on the Wagner farm one mile east of Reeds Corners then sold it to their daughter and son-in-law, Sophronia and Christopher Wagner. In the Spring of 1875 they and their daughter Judith Emma and son-in-law David Haynes, bought the Haynes farm on Sandy Hill, in the town of Dansville, Steuben Co.,NY. and in 1881 they bought out Emma and David's interest and lived there the rest of their lives. Sons Joe and Clarence worked the farm. In 1863 Henry was drafted for the war and went to Dr. Blake to be examined, the doctor told him to go home and take care of his children, he was 43 at the time. Henry's obituary in the Dansville Express dated Thursday Dec 31, 1896, "Henry S. Hartman died on Sandy Hill Tuesday night aged about 76 years. He had been sick for more than a year. He leaves a large family of children."

 Died Thursday and Buried in Carnay Hollow Cemetery Sunday.

Mrs. Catherine Carney, wife of Jesse Carney of Carney Hollow in the town of Springwater, died at her home last Thursday morning at the age of 73 years and a few months. She was born in the town of Sparta, on the farm now owned by James A. Shafer, December 29, 1837, her father who was Conrad Hamsher who married Judith Hughes, then owning the place. Fifty years ago she married Jesse Carney, an enterprising farmer, and they had always lived in the near vicinity. Her death was the first in the family in half a century. Some few years ago she had a severe stroke of paralysis which left her in a precarious condition, but from it she partially recovered, only to be stricken again and again. She was a noble woman, cheerful in disposition, and a helpmate to her husband who must feel sorely distressed by his bereavement. She is survived by her husband and two sons and two daughters. Bert and Floyd Carney and Mrs. John E. Rowe of Carney Hollow, and Mrs. Harry Hall of Himrods, besides two sisters Miss. Julia Zerfase of Sparta and Mrs. John Sample of Osaian. The funeral was held at the house on Sunday and it was attended by many friends, the Rev. Rider of the Evangelical church at Wayland officiating, and she was buried in the Carney Hollow Cemetery.

OBIT 1 6 1876 EDITION OF GRINDSTONE CITY ADVERTISER Contributed by Dan Southam
Obituary: died in Strongsville, o., Sunday dec 26th 1875, Wm A Fenimore, son of H.R. Fenimore. The deceased was born in Aubbeenaubbee, Fulton county Indiana Jan 17th 1853. He was a young man of remarkable good morals, never having strayed into the paths that so often entice the feet of the young. About two years since his health began to fail, his lungs becoming affected. He has been gradually failing ever since the lung disease, but was not confined to the house till about eight weeks since. A few weeks before his death he felt he had experienced a change of heart, expressing a firm determination to henceforth be a servant of the Lord. Some little time before his death, he said to a friend that he did not fear to die, since all his trust was in Christ. During his last hours, he called his brothers and sisters about him, bidding them serve the Lord, and meet him in heaven, and expressed a special desire that his father should meet him in that blest home. So sink they to rest whose minds are stayed on God. A large company of sympathizing friend and neighbors gathered to pay their last regards to all that was left of a once young and hopeful life cut off in the flower of youth. The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of a large company of friends in this hour of trial. And again we are reminded of what the poet has sung: There is not a flock however tended, but one dead lamb is there: There is not a hearth howsoever defended; but hath one vacant chair.

78. WILLIAM⁶ HAMSHER (PETER⁵, DANIEL⁴ HOMSHER, ANTHONY (ANTON)³, JOHANN MARTIN (MARINUS)² HAMSCHER, MATTHEUS¹ HAMBSCHER) was born Jan 12, 1827 in Chester County, Pennsylvania, and died Mar 10, 1907 in Chicago, Huron County, Ohio. Burial: Mound Hill Cemetery, Seville, Medina County, Ohio. He married ELIZA A. LEE Sep 12, 1854 in Medina County, Ohio. She was born Aug 10, 1832 in Ohio, and died Jun 15, 1905 in Guilford Township, Medina County, Ohio. Burial: Mound Hill Cemetery, Seville, Medina County, Ohio.

The subject of this sketch, William Hamsher, was born January 12, 1827, in Chester County, Pennsylvania, and died at Chicago, Ohio, March 10, 1907, making his age four score years and two months. He was the son of Peter and Catherine Hamsher and was the last of his family. September 23, 1854, he was united in marriage to Eliza Ann Lee, and to this union two children were born, Edgar and Josephine. The son died at the age of nine, and the daughter, the wife of Albert F. Remy, of Mansfield, passed away in May, 1891. Her death was a great shock to the aged father and mother. Mrs. Hamsher passed away June 15/1905. The deceased moved from the place of his birth to Medina County, Ohio, when a boy, later moving to Wayne County, where he lived until coming to Chicago, Ohio, about the year 1877. In his early days he was a wood carver and is said to have been a fine workman. While in Doylestown, Ohio, he conducted a drug store. Mr. Hamsher was a man of intelligence and gifted with a kindly disposition, yet so reserved of late years in his daily life that few people had formed his acquaintance. Defective eye sight for many years made him very sensitive and he preferred the quiet and peace of his home to the companionship of friends. He took a keen interest in the town, its churches and people, and as a rule was well posted. He was a pioneer of Chicago Junction, moving here when the population was less than one hundred. Funeral services were held at the home of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Jane Hamsher, March 12th, conducted by Rev. J.K. Argo. The remains were taken to Seville, Ohio, for interment beside his wife. The friends present from out of town were Mrs. Violet Gibson of Logansport, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. E.B. Smith, of Cleveland, Mr. A.F. Ramey of Mansfield, Mr. T.J. Frazier, of Zanesville, and Col. Robt. Cowden, of Dayton, who were unable to attend the services, were present at the burial.

AN OLD RESIDENT CALLED TO HIS REWARD

"Uncle" William Hamsher who has been a great sufferer for a period of four weeks, the result of a fall, passed away Sunday Morning shortly after seven o'clock. His death leaves but no surviving member of the Hamsher home in this place. Mrs. C.J. Hamsher, or "Aunt Jane" as she is so familiarly known. His wife's death occurred in June 1900. Deceased was 80 years old on the twelfth day of January. Impressive funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon at four o'clock, conducted by Rev. J.K. Argo, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Beautiful and very appropriate music was furnished by a quartet composed of Mrs. C.B. Tudor, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Crooks, and Mr. T.E. Stacy. The remains were taken to Seville, Ohio, Tuesday morning on train 14, and interred in the cemetery near that village, where rest the other members of this family.

William Homsher was born in Chester County, Pennsylvania, February 27, 1827. He came to this state at 10 years of age. Lived in Franklin, Decatur, and Boone counties until the last 20 years of his life which he spent in Bartholomew County. While a lad in his teens, he was converted and united with the Presbyterian Church in Franklin County. After this he worked with the churches known as Dryfork in Decatur County; Center Church in Boone County, the Hawcreek Baptist Church and a Union Church at Hartsville. He united with the Sharon Baptist Church, June 24, 1895, where he retained a faithful member until his demise. He was married to Emeline Ervin, January 29, 1852. To this union were born four children, two boys, and two girls. He enlisted in the Union Army, September 18, 1861. He served with the 37th Regiment, Indiana Volunteer Infantry, and was honorably discharged, October 27, 1864. His jovial disposition won him many friends and he was highly esteemed by those who knew him. His last days were spent in the closest fellowship with God. His daily talks with the Father were often heard by the member of the household. He was anxious for the unsaved generally, but especially for those of his loved ones. He was ready to go and the going was as one going to sleep. He leaves a wife, one son, one daughter, one grandchildren, two great grandchildren, other relatives, and many friends. He departed this life at 6:30 a.m. on April 9, 1914, being 87 years, one month, and ten days old. Funeral services conducted at the home of Francis Vanskike by Dallas F. THE CHARITON HERALD-PATRIOT Chariton, Iowa Thursday, June 15, 1916

Amos Homsher, a pioneer resident of Chariton, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Emma Dungan, in Burlington, Iowa, Thursday, June 8, 1916, after an extended illness with diseases to which the aged are subjected, at the advanced age of 88 years. He was born Jan. 24, 1828, in Lancaster county, Penna., and when 8 years of age he moved with his parents to Illinois. He was united in marriage to Nancy Burley at Quincy, Ill., Dec. 2, 1849. To them were born two children, a son and daughter, George, of Clyde, Colo., and Mrs. Emma Dungan, of Burlington, who survive him. Mrs. Homsher passed away February 18, 1893. They came to Iowa and located in Chariton in 1855, where he resided until three years ago, when failing health compelled him to remove to Burlington, where he could be with his daughter during his remaining days. He enlisted in the Civil War in Co. E, 34th Iowa, and served two years, until failing health compelled him to return home. He was a good man and his creed was the ten commandments, which he conscientiously observed, living an upright and honest life. The remains were brought to this city Saturday morning on No. 3, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Dungan, and nurse, Wm. McDowell. Short services were held from the Melville undertaking parlor at 10 o'clock, conducted by M. C. Lorimor. Many beautiful flowers from esteemed friends covered the mound in the Chariton cemetery, where he was laid to rest beside his beloved companion. Obituary courtesy of Charles M. Wright

THE CHARITON HERALD Chariton, Iowa Thursday, February 23, 1893

DIED - At her home in Chariton, Iowa, Saturday morning, February 18, 1893, Mrs. Nancy Homsher, aged 60 years, 7 months and 2 days. Deceased has been afflicted for several months past with a complication of ailments which the skill of the medical profession were unable to reach, and at the time stated above her sufferings ended in death. Mrs. Homsher was born in Brownsville, Fayette county, Pa., and was the eldest of 11 children, all of whom but three are still living. She was married at Quincy, Illinois, December 2, 1849, to Amos Homsher, who survives her. They were the parents of two children, Emily L., born at Quincy, Ill., and George, born in Lucas county, Iowa. They became residents of this county in 1855, prior to which Mrs. Homsher had been a member of the Baptist church from childhood. There being no Baptist church here at that time, Mrs. Homsher identified with the M. E. church and has ever since been a constant member thereof. Funeral services were conducted at the M. E. church Sunday afternoon by Rev. Collins, and the remains were taken to the Chariton cemetery, followed by many sorrowing friends, whose sympathies go out to the bereaved in their hour of trial.

Clara Mabel was a lovable, thrifty mother who strived hard and sacrificed much to see that her children obtained a good education. The children met the challenge, each working at various jobs, and graduating from Princeton High School, where all of them participated in the competitive sports of the school. The Bert Robinson family were all members of the Princeton Christian Church. Clara and daughter Mary belonged to Eastern Star.

Joshua Bert Robinson was born on the farm in the Coon neighborhood. He attended Calvert School. Joshua and Clara were married in 1899 and became the parents of four boys and four girls. Helen "Leona", the oldest was born at her grandfather Henry Robinson's place. William Henry "Bill", Harry Berton and Edward "Claude" were born on the southeastern part of the W. W. Hampshire farm near the Honey Creek bridge. The Robinson's lived there until the Spring of 1905, when they moved to the Snowden Johnson farm about six miles southeast of Princeton. Here, Ida "Frances", Mary Eunice and Mabel Rae were born and the four older children attended the Victor School. In 1912 they moved to a ten acre place immediately southeast of Princeton, overlooking Wildcat Creek. It was here that Olin Clay was born. Later the family moved to 1305 East Main Street in Princeton. Bert was the City Letter carrier in Princeton from 1921 to 1948. Bert and sons, Olin and Harry, belonged to the Masonic Lodge in Princeton. Harry and Claude were charter members of the short lived chapter of the Order of De Molay for Boys initiated in Princeton on February 4, 1922.

CONFEDERATE TEXAS TROOPS

21st Regiment, Texas Infantry Overview:

21st Infantry Regiment was organized during the spring of 1864 by consolidating the 11th (Spaight's) Texas Cavalry and Infantry Battalion and Griffin's Texas Infantry Battalion. Serving in the Trans-Mississippi Department, the unit was stationed at Sabine Pass with 14 officers and 235 men. Later it moved to Louisiana, then returned to Texas. It disbanded prior to the surrender in June, 1865. Its commanders were Colonel Ashley W. Spaight, Lieutenant Colonel William M. Griffin, and Major Felix C. McReynolds.

Lovan Hampshire was the illegitimate son of John Hampshire and Julia Ellender. The town of Hamshire, Texas was named after Lovan Hamshire. Also found reference that he was raised by Jane DeVore Hampshire.

Taken from a book on Wood County, Ohio

Obituary from the August 9, 1892 Seneca Advertiser reads, in part.

In 1832 he came to Seneca County walking all the way with an ax on his shoulder. He cleared a farm in Jackson Township and he resided there until 1866 when he sold out and moved over into Wood County, again settled in the woods and in a few years had another fine farm, redeemed from nature's wildness. Mr. Hampshire was twice married and the father of thirteen children, seven of whom survived. He had sixty-two grandchildren. He was a man of strong will and force of character, and this was displayed to the last. Dr. Wollam visited him Friday morning and Uncle Jonas threw his feet out of bed and asked the Doctor to help him across the room. He did so—they walked through two rooms and returned. He got into bed, the Doctor left, and in a few moments Mr. Hampshire was dead. It is supposed that Mr. Hampshire left no will. He had often been heard to say that he would never make a will, and his family will be surprised if one is found. Mr. Hampshire was an enterprising citizen, a successful farmer and prosperous in business, but he won his success in life by industry and with such an honest purpose and kindly heart as commanded the universal respect and esteem of all who knew him. Jonas Hampshire was born October 16, 1808 in Baltimore County, Md., son of Barney Hampshire, who in 1811 removed with his family to Ohio, locating first in Muskingum county, where they lived seven years, and thence removing to Morgan county, He was the father of eleven children - four sons and seven daughters. Jonas Hampshire was married in 1830, in Morgan county, to Mary Swope, daughter of Jacob Swope, and two children were born to them there - George & Henry. In the fall of 1832 the family removed to Seneca county, locating in Jackson township, where Mr. Hampshire had entered 160 acres of land, and they were pioneers in that region, the country being very sparsely settled at the time of their arrival. They continued to reside there for over twenty years, in 1858 removing to Wood County and settling on a farm in Section 34, Portage Township. Here Mr. Hampshire had invested in 200 acres of farmland, on which the timber was still standing, no trees having been chopped except by coon hunters. He cleared the land, however and continued to improve it during his lifetime, converting it into a valuable property. A hard working man, he met with well-merited success, at the time of his death being the owner of 316 acres of land east of Jerry City, and thirty three acres, south, residing on the latter place for some years previous to his decease. He gave each of his children a farm. He became quite prominent in Jackson Township, Seneca County, where he served as township trustee and assessor, and he was an ardent believer in the principles of the Democratic Party. Having a natural aptitude for military tactics, he took great interest in such affairs, and was captain of a company of home militia in Jackson Township, Seneca Co., Ohio. Of the children born to Jonas and Mary Hampshire the following named lived to maturity: George; Henry, who lives in Garden City, KS; Emanuel, of Garnet, KS; Abraham, now living in Ottumwa, IA; Rachel, who married Solomon S. Frederick, and died in Henry township; and Catharine (Mrs. John Cupp), of Hammansburg, Ohio. The mother of these died in 1866, in Portage Township, and for his second wife Mr. Hampshire wedded, on December 11, 1866, Mrs. Hannah (Clinger) Saderlin. To this union were born three children - Jonas W., of Portage Township; Aminda, who died in young womanhood; and John, who is a farmer of Bloom Township. Mr. Hampshire passed from earth July 29, 1892, in Bloom Township, and was laid to rest in Jerry City cemetery. He was a member of the Lutheran Church. Mr. Hampshire possessed a strong will, and force of character, traits which marked the whole course of his life, and which were no small factors in his success and popularity. He used to take a very active part in public affairs, and was a leader in the Democratic ranks. He was a successful farmer, and has accumulated a handsome fortune. He lives in Wood County now.

This was clipped from "The Tiffin Advertiser" Feb. 26, 1892 - provided to me by Mark Hampshire of Centennial, Colorado.

Uncle Jonas Hampshire, for many years a resident of Jackson Township, but now of Wood County, was in the city a few days ago and while looking up old friends and old landmarks of the town, paid The Advertiser a friendly call. Mr. Hampshire is one of the oldest pioneers of this group of counties but his spry movements and keen interest in whatever is passing, makes it hard to believe that he is nearly eighty-four years of age. He is a man of short, robust frame, scarcely bowed by age and bearded face lit up with a half quizzical gleam of shrewd intelligence. His eyesight and hearing and perceptions in general, seem to be as unimpaired as the day he first swung an axe in the wilderness of Seneca County some sixty years ago. After mentioning the great satisfaction in visiting his old friend, General Gibson, and in looking over the improvements whereby the village on the banks of the Sandusky has grown into a beautiful city of 12,000 inhabitants. Mr. Hampshire gave the following interesting particulars of his life.

"I was born in Baltimore Co., Maryland, October 18, 1808. My Great Grandfather, Barney Hampshire, served five years in the army under General George Washington and there learned the English language he being a German. My father brought his family to Ohio in the spring of 1811, and settled in Muskingum County, from there we moved to Morgan County in 1818, where father died (drowned) ten years later. I had grown up to be a young man by this time, and was ready to take a wife. In 1830 I married to Mary Swope, my first wife, who died in 1866. "

"Is your second wife still living, Mr. Hampshire?"

"Well, she was when I left Jerry City yesterday," retorted Uncle Jonas humorously, "and I suppose she is yet. Her name was Hanna Sanderlin, and we were married in Dec. 1866." In 1831 I came up to Seneca County for a new home, and bought two eighty acre lots of land in what was afterward Jackson Township. The name, by the way was adopted or accepted at my suggestion. My lease on the farm in Morgan County ran out in 1832, so I put the whole farm in oats and prepared to emigrate. I walked out here in June, the entire distance of 125 miles, carrying my axe on my shoulder and after clearing a place and building a cabin, I trudged homeward. To raise this cabin took the whole population of Jackson Township and two men from Liberty, or ten in all. I brought the family out in the same year. Tiffin was then a small village mostly on the east side of the river. The land office was here and Josiah Hedges was the largest land owner. The streets were very muddy, but we thought little of such inconveniences then. Why, late as fifty years ago, my team of three horses stuck in the street in front of the courthouse, with a load of wheat. I jumped off the wagon to look at a broken trace, and lit in the mud up to my knees. It looks funny now to see that same street laid with brick, and so clean even in the muddiest weather a Tiffin girl can walk across it anyplace without needing to expose her shapely ankle. I had my share of hardships and pleasures in a new country, and as you see, I have lived through it all and am as good as new. If you want to see how quickly the old man can pulverize a woodpile, just give me an axe and show me where you keep your winter's supply of firewood. During those years I cleared off the timber of the 100 acres of my farm; a big job then, but one I could get done for sake of the timber now-a-days. But when I moved over to Wood County, which was in February 1850, I went on a farm where not a tree had been cut, and I began all over again. I have seven children living, the eldest of who was 61, Feb. 1st, and lives in Jerry City. I put up the first plaster house in Jackson township and this caused some people to think "Mebbe" the Hampshire's were getting too stylish for the rest of the community."

"From the fact that you christened Jackson township after the Sainted Leader of the Democracy, I suppose we can easily guess your politics, Uncle Jonas?"

"Yes, young man, and you won't miss your guess either. I was a Jackson voter in 1828, although as was often the case with voters in those days, I was a little previous to age, and I have voted for every Democratic Man for President every time since. I came pretty nigh missing my vote in 1875 for I was down with the dropsy, but they took me to the polls in a carriage. We had to vote over in Liberty township, until we organized Jackson township. I was Fifer in the "Jackson Township Military Band", and I well remember what big times we had at the jollification over Buchanan's election, and at other Democratic rallies. I was Township Trustee seven terms in succession but when "Know Nothinism" broke out in 1854, the Democratic vote of Jackson township dropped down to fourteen and it has been Republican ever since. I was Infirmary Director from 1857 to 1860, or until I removed to Wood County, I recollect that my official duties were very light. I was out there only one time, and that was to be initiated as a member of the board."

Mr. Hampshire has a remarkable hold upon dates and incidents, and replies to the reporter's inquiries with an astonishing readiness. The talk with one of these hale old pioneers is like turning over the leaves of the earlier volumes of history. It is far more satisfactory, however, for the recital gains in vividness when told from the lips of one who has personally witness the scenes he describes and who has helped to make the history he relates.

(an add note to bottom of this) (Ida... this was grandmother (Sarah Hampshire) Stahl's brother. He was a short stocky chap with such jolly blue eyes. I remember him when I was a little girl. He used to come and see Grandma often, and I can hear them joke and laugh yet. They were both such happy natures.

Hannah's first husband was Thomas Jefferson Sanderlin. She was his second wife. He died in 1862 in KY in the Civil War. Hannah was the mother of Wm. Henry, Louisa, Lovina Lydia, Sarah Elizabeth, Martha E., Lodema, Elmira J., Thomas Jefferson, Jr., Sanderlin. After Thomas, Sr's death she became the second wife of Jonas W. Hampshire, Sr. in 1866 and was the mother of Jonas, Jr., Arminda and John Hampshire. Jonas already had eleven children by his first wife. Hannah's maiden name is often listed as Clinger and Clingerman.

Past and Present of Macon County Pages 296 & 297 WILLIAM HAMSHER.

In a history of Macon county, past and present, it is incumbent that we make mention of William Hamsher, for he was one of the early settlers of Decatur, and as one of its pioneers he should certainly find representation in this volume. Great changes have occurred here since the time of his arrival. A little log building constituted the courthouse in Macon county and there were many log cabins in the embryo city when he established his home in Illinois. He was a native of Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, born on the 5th of October, 1824. His parents always made their home in the east and there passed away many years ago. There were several children in the family, however, who came to the west and located in Decatur, and four of the family are now living, namely: Barnett K., who is now secretary for the Herald-Dispatch Company and manager of the Herald Printing and Stationery Company; Samuel W., who holds the position of janitor in the post office at Decatur; Mrs. Williams, of Decatur; and Mrs. Samuel Rotz, of Pennsylvania. Like the other members of the family, William Hamsher received only a common school education. In early manhood he wedded Miss Sophia Bear, the marriage being celebrated in his native state. The lady was also a native of Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, and belonged to a family that has many representatives in Decatur at the present time. Her death, however, occurred on the 8th of February, 1879, and the two children of that marriage, Daniel F. and Susanna M., are also deceased. After his marriage, in 1858, William Hamsher came with the balance of the Hamsher family to Macon County and established his home in the little village of Decatur. It was then a small place similar to other villages which are established on the frontier. Many of the little houses were constructed of logs and everything was primitive in character and few of the comforts of the older east were to be enjoyed here. Mr. Hamsher opened a shop and began working at the wagon-maker's trade, which he followed for many years. He was thus engaged at the time of the outbreak of the Civil war. His patriotic spirit being aroused by the attempt of the south to overthrow the Union, he enlisted in 1861 as a member of Company K, One Hundred and Sixteenth Illinois Infantry, going to the front under the command of Colonel Boyd. The company was engaged in many battles, but Mr. Hamsher was very fortunate in that he was never injured and at the expiration of his term of service he was discharged at Springfield. Returning to his home, Mr. Hamsher once more became connected with the industrial interests of Macon County, working at the wagon-maker's trade in Decatur. He conducted his business here until failing health forced him to retire from that line of activity and he took up his abode upon a farm near Decatur. He resided there for only a brief period, however, and then again established his home in this city, where he lived retired until his death. Mr. Hamsher was married a second time in Decatur to Mrs. Mary (Tweedy) Gray, a native of New York, born November 7, 1830. The lady is a daughter of Robert Tweedy, who was of Scotch-Irish lineage, and on coming to America settled in Canada. He also resided in New York for a short time, but later removed to Montreal, Canada, where he engaged in merchandising. His wife and all of his children, with the exception of Mrs. Hamsher, died in Montreal of cholera within a period of four weeks. The surviving daughter was first married to John A. Gray, of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, who took up his abode in Decatur at an early day and here engaged in the manufacture of cigars until his death. There was one child by that marriage: John A., who wedded Aliss Blanche Willcutt, and resides in Schaller, Iowa, where he is engaged in dealing in grain. Mr. Hamsher was a member of the Bethel Church of God in Decatur, and his wife belongs to the Baptist church of this city. She was left in very comfortable circumstances and now owns a beautiful home at 1606 East Main Street. Mr. Hamsher acquired his possessions along legitimate business lines. He realized that honesty is the best policy and was ever fair and straight forward in all his dealings with his fellowmen. No one ever spoke against his integrity and all who knew him entertained for him the highest regard. He was a member of the Grand Army Post, of Decatur, and in his political views was a Republican, taking an active interest in all of its work. He died May 6, 1899, and the position which he held in the public regard was shown by the fact that his was one of the largest funerals ever held in the city. His friends gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to him whom they had loved and honored.

Child of WILLIAM HAMSHER and SOPHIA BEAR is:

- i. SUSANNA M.⁷ HAMSHER, b. Jun 03, 1850, Pennsylvania; d. Oct 30, 1864, Decatur, Macon County, Illinois. Burial: Boiling Springs Cemetery, Decatur, Macon County, Illinois.

131. SUSANNAH (HANNAH)⁶ HAMSHER (PETER⁵, BARNET⁴, JOHN ADAM³ HAMSCHER, BERNHARD² HAMBSCHER, MATTHEUS¹) was born Jun 03, 1828 in Near Orrstown, Franklin County, Pennsylvania, and died Feb 13, 1882 in Decatur, Macon County, Illinois. She married EPHRAIM BEAR Sep 24, 1849 in Orrstown, Pennsylvania. He was born Jul 20, 1818 in Near Newville, Pennsylvania, and died Dec 21, 1893 in Decatur, Macon County, Illinois.

EPHRAIM BEAR

Ephraim Bear, the fourth child of Ephraim and Mary (Bowers) Bear, was born near Newville, Pa., July 20, 1818, and died at Decatur, Illinois, Dec. 21, 1893. He was twice married. His first marriage was on Dec. 10, 1844, to Elizabeth Mountz, who was born March 15, 1823, and died March 2, 1848. She was buried in the little private cemetery on the old Bear homestead near Newville. One child was born to this union. Ephraim was again married on September 24, 1849, at Orrstown, Pa., Rev. E. H. Thomas, officiating, to Susannah Hamsher, daughter of Peter and Elizabeth (Kline) Hamsher. Susannah Hamsher was born near Orrstown, Pa., June 3, 1828, and died in Decatur, Illinois, Feb. 13, 1882. Nine children were born to this union. Ephraim and Susannah (Hamsher) Bear were buried in Boiling Springs cemetery, near Bearsdale.

Ephraim Bear, of this sketch, lived on a farm in Cumberland County, Pa., near the town of Newville, until thirty years of age. He then removed to Franklin County, where he engaged in the mercantile business until 1852. His health failing, he removed to Decatur, Illinois, where he landed June 3rd of the same year. He and his family drove overland in the same company as his brother Jacob. The members of this company could have purchased land in Decatur, where the Illinois Central R. R. depot now stands for the small sum of $1.25 an acre, and the whole block on which the First Methodist Episcopal church of Decatur stood, and which was only recently razed, for $300. This land, however, at that early time was very unpromising, being marshy and, in many places, covered with water; and the Bears, being of a rural turn of mind, chose land farther out. Ephraim settled in Harristown Township, where he secured 120 acres of land for which he paid $7 per acre, and at once began its development. This is the farm to which his brother Samuel came on first landing in Illinois. Ephraim remained in Harristown Township about seven years, after which he removed to Hickory Point township, near where the village of Bearsdale now stands. Here he purchased and improved a farm, and lived on it until 1878, when he removed to Decatur. He still owned this farm at the time of his death. On removing to Decatur, he engaged in the grocery business for four years, after which he lived a retired life. Mr. Bear and his wife encountered many of the ills and discouragements common to pioneer life. A great deal of malaria in Illinois at this time made it a sickly place, but although many times sick, and with crops sometimes destroyed by storms, yet there was no complaining, but a cheerful and determined effort to make for themselves a home. Ephraim, like his brother Jacob, was one of the founders and charter members of the church of God at Boiling Springs. He was always faithful in attendance at all church services, and at any service which tended to develop the moral and spiritual sentiment of the place in which he lived. He was an elder for many years in the Boiling Springs church and later in the Decatur church. He was of a kind and gentle disposition, of refined taste, and possessed of a quiet sense of humor. He was a great lover of nature and held sweet communion with her; and yet, withal, he was firm in his conviction of right, never swerving from the straight path when his mind was once made up. His religious nature predominated. He was very reverent of God's word and of his house, and was greatly disturbed when any one spoke lightly of either. He and his companion made their home the home of God's ministers, and therefore it was known as "The Preachers' Home." After the death of his second wife, who was a warm-hearted woman, and the ruling spirit of the home life, he retired more within his home, and although lovingly cared for by his children, was many times lonely—"homesick," he called it. His last sickness, which extended over a period of one year, was a time of development to all who came in contact with him. His patience was so great, and his faith so strong, it helped all to wish for just such a life, that their end might be like his. It was said by one who stood by in the last moments, "It must be easy to go like that." His last words were, "It is all right; good by."

Portrait and Biographical Record Macon County, Illinois - Lake City Publishing 1896

EPHRAIM BEAR, who is now living a retired life in Decatur, is numbered among the honored early settlers of Macon County, where for more than forty years he has made his home. His birth occurred in Cumberland County, Pa., on the 20th of July, 1818, but he comes of an old New England family. His grandfather, Jacob Bear, was born in 1747, and died in 1793. Ephraim Bear, Sr., the father of our subject, was born in 1784, and died in 1865. His wife, who bore the maiden name of Mary Bowers, was called to her final rest in 1861, and both were buried in Macon County. The family was originally of Swiss origin. The subject of this sketch was reared to manhood upon the old home farm, and early became familiar with agriculture in all its details. Having attained to mature years, he was married at the age of twenty-six to Miss Elizabeth Mounts, who died four years later. She had a son, Joseph Hartman, who died at the age of seventeen months. Mr. Bear of this sketch remained on the old homestead until thirty years of age, when he removed to Franklin County, Pa., there making his home until 1852. On the 3rd of June of that year he landed in Decatur, coming to the West in company with his brother, Jacob Bear, and Isaac Shellabarger. They drove overland to this place and settled in Harristown Township, six miles west of this city. Our subject secured one hundred and twenty acres of land, for which he paid $7 per acre, and at once began its development. After six years he removed to a new farm near Bearsdale, in Hickory Point Township, and there his brother Samuel located some five years later. Jacob Bear died in November, 1891, and Samuel died February 25, 1880, both leaving families, who still live in this county. Mr. Bear of this sketch purchased one hundred and twenty acres of land near Bearsdale, paying $14 per acre for eighty acres and $7 per acre for the remaining land. To the cultivation and improvement of that farm he devoted his time and attention until 1878, and made it one of the best places in the locality. It is still in his possession and yields to him a good income. On the 27th of September, 1849, Mr. Bear was again married, in Franklin County, Pa., his second union being with Miss Susan Hamsher, sister of B. Hamsher, of Decatur. She was born June 3, 1828, in Franklin County, and died February 13, 1882. The children born of that union are as follows: Mary Elizabeth, wife of John K. Braden; David Franklin, of Illinois Township; John Newton, who follows farming in Hickory Point Township; Charles Cain, a harness-dealer of Decatur; Elmer Knisley, who died in infancy; Martha Ellen, widow of Henry C. Blaine, of Decatur; Ulysses Grant, who died in infancy; and Leah Lou and Olive May, both of whom graduated from the High School of Decatur, and were graduated from Knox College in the Class of '91. Both the latter have successfully engaged in school teaching, and Olive is employed in that vocation at the present time, while Leah, who has received a musical education, is teaching instrumental music. On coming to Decatur in 1878, Mr. Bear embarked in the grocery business, which he carried on for four years, but he is now practically living a retired life, enjoying a well-earned rest. His life has been a busy one, and as the result of his enterprise, good management and perseverance, he has acquired a handsome competency, which surrounds him with many comforts. In politics, he was in early life a supporter of the Whig party, but on its dissolution joined the ranks of the new Republican party, with which he has since affiliated. For forty years he has been a member and faithful worker in the Church of God, and has served as Elder since coming to Illinois. His honorable, upright career and his many excellencies of character have made him highly-esteemed and his life is well worthy of emulation.

Children of SUSANNAH HAMSHER and EPHRAIM BEAR are:

- i. MARY ELIZABETH⁷ BEAR, b. Nov 05, 1850, Near Orrstown, PA. m. JOHN EDWIN BRADEN.
- ii. DAVID FRANKLIN BEAR, b. Jun 23, 1852, Near Decatur, Macon County, Illinois; m. (1) MARTHA ELLEN METLIN; m. (2) AGNES HOUSMAN.
Portrait and Biographical Record Macon County, Illinois, Lake City Publishing - 1896
 DAVID FRANKLIN BEAR, a general farmer residing on section 24, Illinois Township, is one of Macon County's native sons, and well deserves representation in volume. He was born in Hickory Point Township June 23, 1852, hence he has witnessed almost the entire development and progress made by this community. His parents, Ephraim and Susan (Hamsher) Bear, were both natives of Pennsylvania, and in that State were married. At length they left their old home, and, emigrating Westward to Illinois, they cast in their lot with the settlers of Macon County of 1852. Here the father secured land and developed a farm in Harristown Township. He afterward opened up a farm in Hickory Point Township, both of which places he still owns. In 1877 he removed to Decatur, where he is now living a retired life. The subject of this sketch spent his youth upon his father's farm in Hickory Point Township, and was early inured to the hard labors of the farm and to developing wild land, becoming familiar with every department of agriculture. His common-school privileges were supplemented by one term's attendance at the Decatur High School, which completed his literary education. He remained with his father until after he had attained his majority, and then took up the pursuit to which he had been reared, farming for several years on the old homestead. It was in 1888 that he purchased the farm on which he now resides, making it his home since that time. He owns a valuable and well-improved tract of one hundred and sixty acres, and is recognized as one of the progressive and representative farmers of Illinois Township. In politics, Mr. Bear is identified with the Republican party, with which he has affiliated since casting his first Presidential vote. He has never been an aspirant for public office, however, preferring to devote his time and attention to his business interests. He is now serving as a member of the School Board, and the cause of education finds in him a faithful friend. He is found in the front rank of any enterprise calculated to prove of public benefit, and has done much for the best interests of the community. April 6, 1876, Mr. Bear was united in marriage with Miss Martha E. Metlin, who was born in this county, and is a daughter of A. T. Metlin, of Hickory Point Township. She died April 14, 1882, leaving one child. Etta, who is still at home. Jesse, the other child born of that union, died at the age of ten years. Mr. Bear was again married, November 6, 1884, his second union being with Miss Agnes, daughter of George and Hannah (Leads) Housman, of Long Creek Township. One child graces this marriage, Ralph, born April 30, 1887. The parents are members of the Church of God of Boiling Springs, and are highly respected people of this community. Mr. Bear, who has spent his entire life in this county and is therefore widely known, numbers among his warmest friends many who have known him from boyhood, a fact which tells of a well-spent life.

133. DAVID⁶ HAMSHER (PETER⁵, BARNET⁴, JOHN ADAM³ HAMSCHER, BERNHARD² HAMBSCHER, MATTHEUS¹) was born May 15, 1832 in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, and died Mar 26, 1888 in Decatur, Macon County, Illinois. Burial: Greenwood Cemetery, Decatur, Macon County, Illinois. He married (1) REBECCA COOK STARR. She was born Mar 04, 1835 in Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, and died May 31, 1926 in Decatur, Macon County, Illinois. Burial: Greenwood Cemetery, Decatur, Macon County, Illinois. He married (2) MARY MONTGOMERY. She was born Abt. 1837 in Illinois.

Decatur Herald 3/27/1888

David Hamsher died at his home No. 334 W. Main street, yesterday afternoon at ten minutes after 5 o'clock. He was 56 years of age. He was born in Franklin county in 1854. He has been engaged in harness business in this city since 1856. He was twice married. His first wife bore him a daughter, now Mrs. Ida M. Boyd of St. Louis. His second wife and a daughter Miss Emily Hamsher also survive him. His three brothers living are B. K, S.W. and Wm Hamsher. His living sister is Mrs. Henry Williams. The deceased was a man of strong convictions. He was a pronounced and consistent prohibitionist and was a regular attendant at the Methodist church. He was honorable in his business transactions. He had long regarded his own independence of thought and action as of far greater value than any of the ordinary affairs of life. Content to labor for the family he loved he had devoted himself to them steadily and he did not cease altogether to perform the work of a journeyman in his trade until he became afflicted with the illness which caused his death. He was a good man and ambitious devoted to his family. And when the sum of his life is made up we may say that though the world contains many who make a greater noise it can boast of few who more earnestly sought to fulfill the duties which ought to lie nearest to every good mans heart. Peace be to his ashes.

Child of DAVID HAMSHER and REBECCA STARR is:

- i. EMILY STARR⁷ HAMSHER, b. Jul 31, 1868, Decatur, Macon County, Illinois; d. May 16, 1947, Chicago, Cook County, Illinois; Burial: Greenwood Cemetery, Decatur, Macon County, Illinois. m. JOHN THOMAS DITTO; b. Jan 14, 1859, Blandenburg, Meade County, Kentucky; d. Jul 01, 1928, Decatur, Macon County, Illinois. Burial: Greenwood Cemetery, Decatur, Macon County, Illinois.

Mrs. Emily Starr Hamsher Ditto, 78, piano teacher in Decatur for about 25 years, died in the Presbyterian hospital in Chicago, at 2:30 a.m. Friday. She had been a patient in the hospital since Feb. 28. Mrs. Ditto was born July 31, 1868 in Decatur, the daughter of David and Rebecca Starr Hamsher.

She was graduated from the Decatur Musical College in 1888 and from the New England Conservatory of Music at Boston, Mass. in 1890. She was married to John T. Ditto of Brandenburg, Ky. June 28, 1900. Mrs. Ditto lived for 40 years in the family home at 723 West Main street. She was active in the Decatur Music Club and was a founder and officer of the Wood Street Mother's club, which later became the Mary W. French PTA. She was a member of the First Methodist church all her life. She leaves a daughter, Rebecca M. Ditto of LaGrange, with whom Mrs. Ditto has made her home since 1933; a son, John T. Ditto of Chicago; two grandchildren, Susan Starr Ditto and David Lyons Ditto. Burial will be in Greenwood cemetery.

John T. Ditto, Sr., 723 West Main Street, was found dead in the basement of his home at 7 o'clock Sunday morning. He had ended his life by taking gas. A note addressed to his family told of extreme mental depression caused by exhausted nerves-depression that he was unable to withstand longer and asked for forgiveness for his act. Mr. Ditto was 69 years old. There was little in his appearance to suggest event to his friends that he was more than 60, or that he was not even in the best of health. Not even his family suspected that a dental problem from which he had been suffering for ten years had so shattered his nerves as to drive him to despondency. Outwardly he was cheerful. Only at infrequent intervals was there any hint of his real condition. For approximately forty years, John T. Ditto had been a traveling salesman. Last March his condition became such as to force him into temporary retirement. In the time since then he had undertaken having all his teeth extracted. The pain of this, it is believed, aggravated the already weakened condition of his nerves past the breaking point. Jan. 14, 1858, John T. Ditto was born on the farm of his parents, Franklin and Mary Jane Ditto, near Brandenburg, Ky, where he grew to young manhood. In his early years he acquired a love for the out of doors that remained with him throughout his life. June 28, 1900, he was united in marriage with Miss Emily Starr Hamsher of Decatur, who with their two children, John and Rebecca M. survive him. Several years before his marriage, Mr. Ditto began working as a traveling representative with the Kahnfell-Heiner of Cincinnati. He remained in the employ of that company more than 30 years. Two years ago he became a traveling salesman for the J.W. Osgood & Sons Co. of Decatur. Mr. Ditto's Kentucky breeding made him an enthusiast for the traditional sport of gentlemen. To his ears there was no sweeter music than the baying of hounds in full chase. He seldom visited Kentucky without attending a fox hunt. Not infrequently his articles appeared in journals devoted to the sport. All the fox hunters in and about Decatur knew of Mr. Ditto. To go out to a mown wheat field or a cart road at dusk, to loose half a dozen dogs and listen under a bright moon to the barking, now dying away and now coming nearer, as the dogs follow a fox that is never caught, had a fascination for Mr. Ditto. He usually attended the annual meeting of fox hunters in Ramsey. Mr. Ditto was a lifelong member of the Baptist church. Since the beginning of his residence in Decatur, before his marriage, he had been a member of the First Baptist church. He was a member of Macon lodge No. 8, A.F. & A.M., and of the Odd Fellows and Modern Woodmen America lodges. Surviving besides his widow and children are three sisters: Mrs. D.W. Fairleigh and Miss Addie G. Ditto of Louisville, Ky. and Mrs. John D. Babbage of Owensport, Ky. and two brothers, William H. Ditto of Versailles, Ky. and Franklin Ditto of Oklahoma City, Ok. Burial will be in Greenwood cemetery. Herald July 2, 1928

Child of DAVID HAMSHER and MARY MONTGOMERY is:

- i. IDA M.⁷ HAMSHER, b. 1859; d. 1928; Burial: Greenwood Memorial Terrace, Spokane, Spokane County, Washington. m. FRANK S. BOYD; b. 1857, Illinois; d. May 24, 1927, Spokane, Spokane County, Washington. Ida married Frank S. Boyd circa 1879. Burial: Greenwood Memorial Terrace, Spokane, Spokane County, Washington.

134. JOHN⁶ HAMSCHER (PETER⁵ HAMSHER, BARNET⁴, JOHN ADAM³ HAMSCHER, BERNHARD² HAMBSCHER, MATTHEUS¹) was born Abt. 1834 in near Orrstown, Pennsylvania. Burial: Boiling Springs Cemetery, Decatur, Macon County, Illinois. He married CATHERINE KNISLEY. She was born Nov 01, 1831 in Near Shippensburg, Pennsylvania. Burial: Boiling Springs Cemetery, Decatur, Macon County, Illinois.

Notes for JOHN HAMSCHER:

John Hamsher was born near Orrstown, Pa., in about 1834. He came to Decatur, Ill., in 1853 or 1854, and in 1855 went back to Pennsylvania where he was married to Catherine Knisley. They then returned to Decatur where they lived continuously up to the time of the death of both. When the Church of God was organized at Decatur, Bethel Church, they were charter members. Catherine's death occurred Sept. 4, 1862, and she was buried in Boiling Springs Cemetery, near Bearsdale. John Hamsher remarried and his death occurred in 1881. He, too, was buried in Boiling Springs Cemetery, by the side of his wife, Catherine. During his residence in Decatur he was in the harness business, and from 1878 up to the time of his death was in partnership with Charles Cain Bear, whose notice appears elsewhere in this work, and who is still in the harness business at Decatur.

Children of JOHN HAMSCHER and CATHERINE KNISLEY are:

- i. ELLA⁷ HAMSCHER, b. Aug 15, 1858; m. JOHN DICKSON.
- ii. LAURA HAMSCHER, b. Apr 26, 1860; d. Feb 09, 1861.
- iii. MINNIE KATHARINE HAMSCHER, b. Nov 11, 1861.

135. BARNET KLINE⁶ HAMSHER (PETER⁵, BARNET⁴, JOHN ADAM³ HAMSCHER, BERNHARD² HAMSCHER, MATTHEUS¹) was born Sep 15, 1838 in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, and died 1907 in Decatur, Macon County, Illinois. Burial: Greenwood Cemetery, Decatur, Macon County, Illinois. He married CECELIA AUGUSTA ELWOOD Oct 21, 1869 in Decatur, Macon County, Illinois. She was born Aug 01, 1849 in Little Falls, Herkimer County, New York, and died Aug 07, 1940 in Decatur, Macon County, Illinois. Burial: Greenwood Cemetery, Decatur, Macon County, Illinois.

Barnet K. Hamsher, who is one of the publishers and proprietors of the Decatur Republican, doing business in the journalistic field as a member of the firm of Hamsher & Calhoun, is a native of the Keystone State, his birth having occurred in Franklin County, on the 10th of September, 1838, His father, Peter Hamsher, died when our subject was only a year old; and his mother, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Kline, passed away leaving her boy an orphan at the age of six and a-half years. His school privileges were those afforded by the town in which he lived, but in the school of experience he has gained a wide and varied knowledge, probably more practical, if not as classical, as he could have acquired in college. Mr. Hamsher took up his life work at the age of fourteen, being employed in the printing-office of the Newburg Public Servant. He came to Illinois in 1856, at the age of eighteen, locating in Decatur. He engaged as a printer on several of the early papers of Decatur, and worked several years on the Decatur Chronicle, edited by W. J. Isrey, one of the pioneers of journalism in this city. In 1862, in company with J. R. Mosser, he leased the Chronicle, its proprietor being then in the army. These gentlemen continued its publication for a year, and after that time until 1867 Mr. Hamsher was engaged in other business. In the latter year he became associated with J. R. Mosser in the publication of the Republican, which was founded in August, 1867, by Mr. Mosser and W. M. Stanley. Mr. Hamsher purchased Mr. Stanley's interest about a month after the establishment of the paper, and continued with Mr. Mosser until October, 1890, when, on account of ill health, the latter sold his interest to W. F. Calhoun, the present partner. In 1869, Mr. Hamsher was married to Miss Cecelia A. Elwood, daughter of Daniel Elwood, an early-settler of this city. Five children have been born unto our subject and his wife, as follows: Harry E., who is assistant city editor of the Republican, and who married Miss Birdie Waggoner, of Decatur, daughter of W. H. Waggoner, who for several years was County Clerk of Macon County; Frank K., who graduated at the age of seventeen from the Decatur High School, then worked in the newspaper office for about a year, and is now pursuing a literary course in the University of Ann Arbor, Mich., from which he will graduate in the Class of '95; Grace, Dessie and Lucile, who are at home. The parents hold membership with the First Methodist Episcopal Church. The family have a pleasant and beautiful home, situated at No. 738 West William Street, which was built by Mr. Hamsher, and is presided over with womanly dignity and grace by his excellent wife. This worthy couple and their children rank high in the social circles in which they move, and their home is the abode of hospitality. It is supplied with all the comforts of life and tokens of education and culture. It is perhaps in his home that the true life of Mr. Hamsher is shown. His own youth was a homeless one, and, appreciating the value and blessing of a comfortable home, he does all in his power to provide one for his family, and spares no labor or expense that will enhance the happiness and promote the welfare of his wife and children. As his connection with the paper indicates, Mr. is a supporter of the Republican party, and manifests a warm interest in political affairs. The journal with which he is connected was established in 1867, and the daily, which is the oldest in the county, in 1872. The Republican is a bright, newsy sheet and ably advocates the principles of the party for which it was named. Our subject is its business manager. The general editor is Mr. Calhoun, and the city editor John J. H. Young. A noticeable fact about this paper, and one that reflects great credit on the management, is that no less than ten of the employees have been with the paper from fifteen to twenty years. The paper is now prospering, and it well deserves the liberal patronage received.

Barnet K. Hamsher, age 65, died at 10:32 Monday morning at his home, 738 West William Street. The cause of his death was pulmonary tuberculosis. His wife and five children were at the bedside at the time of his death.

ILL FOR MONTHS. Mr. Hamsher has been in failing health for several months. For most of the winter he had been frequently confined to his home by illness. About the first of April he was laid up for two weeks. He came down town at different times after that but was unable to give any attention to his business. The last week it had been evident that he had but a short time to live. His last hours were peaceful and he passed away apparently without suffering.

LONG PROMINENT CITIZEN. The death of Mr. Hamsher takes from Decatur one of it is most widely known and oldest citizens. Having lived in this city for about half a century, he was for a great many years one of it is most prominent business men. He was one of the owners of the Daily Republican, for twenty years the leading daily newspaper. That was the time when connection with a newspaper was quite different from what it is now. The proprietors by their business were made prominent in politics and in social life and in other ways. In all these Mr. Hamsher was active. His business gave him a wide acquaintance not only in the city but in Macon county as well. Twenty years ago. It is likely that, he was personally acquainted with almost every family in the county. His long life here and his many different connections made him many warm friends. The last few weeks when the news of his serious illness began to get out among them, most heartfelt expressions of regard and regret for him were heard. He gave his attention to business most of his time. He never held any political positions of his own, though he helped many other men to get places. Three or four years ago Mayor Shilling appointed him 611 Inspector and Mayor McDonald appointed him to the same place. CAME TO DECATUR IN 1836. Barnett K. Hamsher was born in Franklin County, Pennsylvania, Sept. 15, 1838. His school privileges were those afforded in the town in which he lived. He took up his life work at the age of 14, being employed in the printing office of the Newburg Public Servant. He came to Illinois in 1856 and located in Decatur. He worked as a printer on several of the papers in existence at that time. For several years he was with the Decatur Chronicle, edited by W.J. Usrey. WITH THE REPUBLICAN. In the latter year he became associated with J. R. Mosser in the publication of the Republican, which was founded in August 1867 by Mosser and Stanley. Mr. Hamsher purchased Mr. Stanley's interest about a month after the establishment of the paper. They were associated together until 1890. when Mr. Mosser's interest was bought by W. F. Calhoun. In July, 1899, the Republican was consolidated with the Herald and Owen Scott became associated with Hamsher and Calhoun. Mr. Hamsher took charge of the job printing, in which capacity he remained until 1904, when he sold his interest in the Herald and embarked in the job printing business for himself at 133 East Prairie street. Arrangements had just been completed for the leasing of his job printing office to W. L. Hall and L. L. Underwood. In 1849 Mr. Hamsher was married to Miss Cecelia A. Elwood, daughter of the late Daniel H. Elwood, who survives her husband. Five children were born to this union and all survive. They are Mrs. W.B. Tyler of Taylorville; Mrs. James Vigus of Paris, Tex.; Frank Hamsher of St. Louis; Miss Lucille Hamsher and H.E. Hamsher, both of this city.

Children of BARNET HAMSHER and CECELIA ELWOOD are:

Decatur Herald 7/28/1926

Mrs. Dessie Hamsher Vigus died in Macon county hospital Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock where last Thursday she had submitted to a surgical operation for relief from appendicitis. From the effects of that she was seemingly making recovery until Tuesday morning when she suffered a relapse from which she could not rally. Dessie Hamsher was born in Decatur, the daughter of Barney K and Cecila Hamsher, practically all of her life has been passed in this city where she attended school and was graduated from Decatur high school. Soon after her graduation she was married to James B. Vigus of Paris, Texas. She resided in that city until after the death of her husband in 1907 when she returned to Decatur to make her home. In her large circle of acquaintances Dessie Vigus was a favorite. She was blessed with keen intellect, a happy disposition and a ready wit that was the delight of her intimates. In recent years the major portion of her time has been given to companionship to her aged mother because of which she was not at liberty to a social life as formerly but she never lacked for social life for her friends knew that they would find her in her home where she had many callers. They were friends from primary school. Mrs. Vigus was a member of the First Methodist church. She leaves her brother Harry Hamsher of E. St. Louis and her mother Mrs. Cecelia Hamsher, 738 W. William. The body was taken to the undertaking rooms of Brinlingers funeral home. Funeral services will be at 9:30 Thursday morning in the family home on W. Williams.

Vigus--Word was received in Decatur yesterday of the death at Paris, Texas of James B. Vigus after an illness of ten days of typhoid fever. It was not known here that his illness was serious until Tuesday night, when messages to that effect came to Decatur relatives. Mrs. Ida Vigus the dead mans stepmother, left Wednesday morning for Paris and with Mr. Vigus young widow will accompany the body home, arriving here Friday morning. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of Mrs. B. K. Hamsher. Until he left Decatur for Texas seven years ago "Jimmy" Vigus was a well known and popular young man in Decatur, where he had spent practically all his life and news of his death will be received with general sorrow. He was 30 years of age. He left no immediate relatives but is survived by his wife. Four years ago last June he was married to Miss Bessie Hamsher daughter of Mrs. B. K. Hamsher and a young woman with a host of friends in Decatur who will extend to her their fullest sympathy in her affliction. In Texas, Mrs. Vigus was a representative of a typewriter manufacturing company and was advancing and prospering in his work when his fatal illness overtook him.

- v. LUCILLE HAMSHER, b. Mar 19, 1890, Decatur, Macon County, Illinois; d. Oct 16, 1910, Decatur, Macon County, Illinois. Burial: Greenwood Cemetery, Decatur, Macon County, Illinois.

After an illness of about four months, Miss Lucile Hamsher died at 9:50 Sunday night at the home of her mother, 738 West William street. She had fairly good health until early in the summer. After two months of failing health she went to Boise City, Idaho in the hope of regaining her strength. She seemed to improve for a time but about four weeks ago became worse and kept growing worse constantly. She was brought home last Friday night by her brother, Frank Hamsher, and sister, Mrs. Dessie Vigus, and a nurse. Her condition was serious at that time.

BORN IN DECATUR. Lucile Hamsher was born in this city March 18, 1890. She was the daughter of Mrs. B. K. Hamsher and had lived in this city all her life. She graduated from the high school in 1907. Since that time she has lived at home. She was popular with the younger people of the city and her pleasant disposition, and ways endeared her to those with whom she came in contact. She was a member of the First Methodist church for a number of years. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. B. K. Hamsher of this city, sister, Mrs. Dessie Vigus of this city; two brothers, Harry E. and Frank Hamsher of St. Louis. An early announcement set the time of the funeral at 1 p.m. Tuesday. The hour has since been changed to 3 p.m. The funeral will be held from the residence. Rev. J.C. Willits, pastor of the First Methodist church officiating.

DIED - Michaels -- At the family residence in Ballville Township, Friday, September 1, 1893, at 4 o'clock A.M. Minnie Hampsher Michaels, Wife of G.F Michaels, aged 23 years, 5 months and 23 days. Funeral services conducted by J.L. Albritton were held at the residence Friday afternoon. Interment in McGormley Cemetery. Mrs. Michaels, with her husband and a company of congenial friends, visited the [Chicago] World's Fair during the middle of August, and while there, probably contracted that terrible disease, diphtheria. Returning home, she complained of a sore throat, but thought little about it until Monday. She came to town to see a physician, who at once told her to return home and take her mother with her for she was dangerously ill. From that time all that could be done availed not and she sank rapidly, till four o'clock Friday morning when she passed peacefully away. She was a general favorite in the community, bright, witty, cheerful and happy. She was the life of the company wherever she was. It was a terrible thought to her that she must die and leave her happy home, devoted husband, affectionate parents and so many friends, with such bright prospects of happiness before her. But with an earnest prayer to God for grace she conquered all opposition, set her house in order, gave minute directions as to her funeral, bid her husband, father and mother goodbye, saying "The Lord's will be done, it is all for the best," and fell asleep in Jesus. A husband, father, mother, two sisters and a brother and a whole community mourn because of her departure.

167. CAROLINE E.⁶ HAMPSHER (BERNARD⁵, DANIEL⁴, JOHN ADAM³ HAMSCHER, BERNHARD² HAMBSCHER, MATTHEUS¹) was born Dec 05, 1824 in Sparta, Livingston County, New York, and died Abt. 1913 in Livingston County, New York. Burial: Green Mount Cemetery, Dansville, Livingston County, New York. She married GEORGE HARTMAN Oct 18, 1854 in by Rev. David, Lantz in Livingston County, New York. He was born 1827, and died 1916 in Livingston County, New York. Burial: Green Mount Cemetery, Dansville, Livingston County, New York.

The Dansville Express Thursday, March 27, 1913

Mrs. Caroline Hartman, wife of George Hartman, died at the family home at the lower end of Main street Saturday afternoon. She had been sick for some time, and as Mr. Hartman had also been ill for a time, the care of the two aged people had devolved upon the daughter Miss Mary Hartman, who gave the closest attention to the sick ones until a nurse was called in to assist. Mrs. Hartman was the daughter of Bernard Hampsher of Sparta and she was born in the house on the Magin farm near the Lackawanna depot, which was removed when Mr. Magin built his present residence, Dec. 5, 1824, so that she was a little more than 88 years old at the time of her death. She was married to Mr. Hartman Oct. 18, 1854, by Rev. David Lantz, and she had lived in the home where she died nearly all her married life. She was beautiful in her younger days and as the years advanced she developed into a noble woman, beloved not alone by her family but by her acquaintances and friends. As a mother she had no superior and as a friend to the afflicted and the poor she was ever ready to give of her sympathy and her means, counting it always more blessed to give than to receive. While at her home in Sparta as a girl she was a leader in musical circles having a voice of rare sweetness and volume, and until she left her own home to build up another with her husband and children she was a member of the choir of St. John's Lutheran church at the center. Mrs. Hartman is survived by her husband, her daughter, Miss Mary Hartman and two sons, Frank M. Hartman and Albert W. Hartman. Funeral services were held from the house on Tuesday, Rev. M.R. Helig of St. Paul's English Lutheran church officiating, and she was buried on the family lot in Greenmount.

Children of CAROLINE HAMSHER and GEORGE HARTMAN are:

Mrs. Susannah Oberdorf died on January 16th, at the home of her son, B.H. Oberdorf. She is survived by two sons, County clerk B.H. Oberdorf and W.S. Oberdorf and by a sister and two brothers, Mrs. George Hartman and Jonas G. Hamsher of this town and M.S. Hamsher of Canaseraga.

Children of SUSSANAH HAMSHER and PETER OBERDORF are:

- m. HELEN G. GRANT; b. Aug 1857, Dansville, Livingston County, New York; d. Jul 17, 1933, Dansville, Livingston County, New York. Burial: Green Mount Cemetery, Dansville, Livingston County, New York.

Bernard Hamsher Oberdork, Secretary and Manager of Our Home Granula Company and the active member of Oberdorf & Edwards, Insurance and Real Estate Agents, was born in the town of Sparta, N.Y., February 3, 1855. His father, Peter J. Oberdorf, was born in the same town; but his grandfather, Joseph Oberdorf, was a native of Sunbury, PA., who settled as a pioneer in the early days of Sparta, and cleared up a tract of land one mile south of Scottsburg. He followed agricultural pursuits here until he purchased a farm on what is known as Chestnut Ridge, where he died in 1851, at the age of forty-nine years. Peter J. Oberdorf, third of six children, was born November 24, 1828. He passed his early days at the homestead of his parents, and afterward became an independent farmer, occupying and owning several different farms in Sparta and West Sparta until 1860. At the opening of the Rebellion his home was in Dansville. Patriotism prompted him to respond to his country's need, and he enrolled as a musician in Company I of the old Thirteenth Regiment of Volunteers. After serving three months, the period required by his first enlistment, he joined the Twenty-seventh New York Infantry in the fall of 1861, and served until after the Peninsular campaign in 1862, when he re-enlisted, this time in the Twenty-first New York Cavalry, with which he continued until the close of the war. After being mustered out he returned to Dansville. Since then he has been a professional musician, being well and favorably known as an excellent teacher and player. In the spring of 1884 Rochester became his home, where, active in musical affairs, he is engaged in professional work, being incorporator and President of the Fifty-fourth Regiment Band and ex-President of the Rochester Protective Musical Association. The maiden name of Mrs. Oberdorf, mother of Bernard, was Susannah B. Hamsher, daughter of Bernard Hamsher, for whom our subject was named. Bernard Hamsher was a pioneer of Sparta; and his children were born in a log house, which formed his primitive dwelling. He was active in religious matters, being one of the organizers and first officers of St. John's Lutheran Church. Successful in agriculture, he passed his entire life upon his farm. Mrs. Oberdorf, the second of six children, and born October 17, 1828, became the wife of Peter J. Oberdorf March 31, 1853. They reared three out of four children born to them — Bernard II, Ona, who married Robert J. Kelso, of Rochester, and died July 15, 1893, at the age of thirty-five years. Both Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Oberdorf are members of the Presbyterian church of Dansville, with which they united by letter from the West Sparta Presbyterian church in 1861. For many years Mr. Oberdorf was leader of the choir of this church. Bernard H. Oberdorf, the subject of this sketch, came to Dansville with his parents at the age of six years, where he attended a select school and afterward the Dansville Seminary. At thirteen he entered the office of the Dansville Advertiser as an apprentice, where he remained thirteen years. During this time not only was the printer's trade thoroughly learned, but also considerable experience acquired, first as foreman of the mechanical department and later at reportorial work in the editorial branch of the office. At twenty-six his health was so impaired by constant indoor confinement that for some time he was unable to attend to any business; but, as soon as health permitted, he undertook insurance as local agent, and later became clerk for contractors during the construction of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad. He followed this occupation for some time in Dansville and also at Lyons, where he remained about six months. Then he returned to Dansville, and accepted a position with Our Home Granula Company, the manufacturers of "granola," a celebrated health food, originated by James C. Jackson, the founder of the famous Jackson Sanatorium. Since then he has constantly been identified with the company, first on salary and afterward as one of the partners. Through his untiring efforts and progressive ideas the company has attained prominence and wide mercantile reputation. The food called granola is a nutritious product from wheat. Appreciation of its worth and its sales are increasing rapidly over an extended territory, which includes almost every civilized country. Mr. Oberdorf also owns an insurance and real estate business, which he conducts under the firm name of Oberdorf & Edwards, having finely appointed offices in the newly constructed plant of Our Home Granula Company. On January 20, 1886, he was married to Miss Helen G. Grant, daughter of Colonel T. B. Grant, a well-known resident and formerly a prominent hardware merchant of Dansville, whose family occupy a high position in Dansville. Mr. Oberdorf is a member of Phi-nix Lodge, No. 115, I'. & A. M., in which he has held various offices and of which he is now Treasurer. In Canaseraga Lodge, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, No. 123, of Dansville, he has held all the principal offices, being now a Past Grand. He was an active member of Union Hose Company for eleven years, serving as Secretary and President, and is now an exempt, honorary, and club member of that organization. He was a member of the Board of Trade, and is connected with several social societies, including the Rochester Whist Club. In politics he is a staunch supporter of the Republican party, whose success he is actively promoting. At this time he is serving his second year as Trustee of the village board. When he was elected, the Democratic party in the village was conceded a safe majority, and the election of a Republican considered difficult. Self-made, capable, energetic, shrewd, successful, and untiring in the interests of those he represents, he has acquired a deserved reputation and personality. *Biographical Review of the Leading Citizens of Livingston and Wyoming Counties of New York. The death, of Winfield Scott Oberdorf, 87, on Friday afternoon, June 11, brought to a close a colorful and varied career. Funeral services were held at the residence on Seward Street Monday at 2:00 p.m. the Rev. Robert McKee officiating. Burial was made in Greenmount Cemetery. A native of Dansville son, Mr. Oberdorf was the son of the late Peter John Oberdorf and Susannah B. Hamsher Oberdorf. His maternal grandfather, Bernard Hamsher, was an early settler of Sparta. Peter Oberdorf was an honored veteran of the Civil War and was prominent in musical circles here and in Rochester. At an early age Mr. Oberdorf gained wide recognition as an influential civic and social leader and as a political speaker, starting his campaign speaking in 1888 in the interests of Benjamin Harrison. He was a gifted orator, and one year (1893) he declined 15 invitations to deliver Memorial Day addresses, having accepted an invitation to speak in Utica. Many Dansvillians will remember the force and fire of his after-dinner speeches in this area.

Becomes a Printer

Mr. Oberdorf's career included a wide range of pursuits and occupations. When 14, he entered the office of the Dansville Advertiser where he learned the printer's trade. He then entered Geneseo State Normal School and after graduation became editor of the Livingston Republican newspaper in Geneseo, a sheet which then had the largest circulation in the county. Two years later, co-partnership interest in the Dansville Advertiser was tendered him by Editor A.O. Bunnell. From this time until a few years before his death, Mr. Oberdorf was prominent in the business, civic, political, fraternal and patriotic affairs of this community. In 1897, his connection with the Advertiser terminated because of poor health. Following a return of health, he was appointed agent of the Estate of John Hyland, E.T. Scovill (residuary legatee under the Will of Mr. Hyland). Much of the successful defense in connection with the celebrated $10,000 Hyland-Clark note case was due to his efforts. After the death of Mr. Scovill, Mr. Oberdorf became executor of his Will and at completion of these duties again became Agent of the Estate holding the position until 1943. Mr. Oberdorf served as Stamp Clerk for Livingston County and for many years was a Director of the Dansville Board of Trade. In 1927, he was appointed a member of the Village Planning Commission when it was instituted and was instrumental in the adoption of zoning for Dansville. As a member of the Union Hose Company, he served as secretary, foreman, and finally as Chief Engineer of the entire Fire Department. Active in Masonry, Oldest Dansville Mason in point of service, Mr. Oberdorf was also a Past Grand of the IOOF. He was raised a Mason in Phoenix Lodge No. 115, May 4, 1889 and in Royal Arch Masonry in 1920. He served as Master of the Lodge for five years and as Trustee for nine years --1925 to 1933. He arranged and directed services of 14 annual George Washington community observances for the Masons (1921-1934). These programs attracted statewide attention. Masonic offices held by Mr. Oberdorf include: assistant Grand Lecturer, 1926-27; District Deputy Grand Master 1927-28; member of Grand Lodge Committee on Charters for five years. As member of the Sons of Veterans, he was one of five delegates representing New York State at the National Encampment in Minnesota in 1891. The following June he was elected without opposition to the post of Commander of all Camps in New York State. During his term of office, the State organization reached a membership never before attained and at the National Encampment of 1893, the Gold Cross of the Order was conferred upon him for meritorious service. Uniting with the Presbyterian Church of Dansville February 4, 1877 his membership continued for 71 years until his death, one of the longest periods of any living member. For a time he was active as a teacher in the Church Sunday School, and in April, 1929, he was installed an Elder. In September, 1899, he was united in marriage to Katherine Angel Hall, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis G. Hall of Dansville, who passed away November 6, 1946. Mr. Oberdorf is now survived by their two daughters, Susannah Hall Oberdorf, who is now Mrs. Hobart R. Avery of Batavia, and Nancy Angel Oberdorf, who is now Mrs. Raymond F. Beckwith of Rutherford, New Jersey, Other survivors are three grandchildren, Rodney and Peter Beckwith, and Katherine Linda Avery. A conscientious and industrious worker, Mr. Oberdorf carved for himself a worthy place among the prominent citizens of this village.

Dansville Express Dansville, Livingston County, New York. Thursday, April 2, 1903

John Shafer, one of the oldest residents of Sparta, died at 6:40 yesterday morning of pneumonia following an attack of grip. A year or so ago he had a stroke of paralysis and since that time he had been slowly failing. He was around the house most of the time until last Friday when he was attacked by a severe pain, the premonition of pneumonia and he soon gave way to it. Mr. Shafer was the son of Henry Shafer who was born in Pennsylvania in 1794 and came here with his father early in the last century, living for a short time near the tollgate on the Wayland road and then moving into the town of Sparta where they purchased a farm. John Shafer was born on this farm Feb. 9th, 1824 and he lived and died on it. He was born in a log house but some years ago he built a large frame house and he improved the farm so that it is now one of the best in the county. In 1850 he married Miss Hannah Hamsher, daughter of Conrad and Judith Hamsher, who also came from Pennsylvania and she died in February, 1898. Mr. Shafer was an active, hard working man all his life and was considered one of the substantial men of his town, he was a member of the Methodist church, at consistent Christian and one who labored earnestly for the interests of the church. Of his father's family there is but one remaining member, Mrs. Angeline Altmeyer of this village and of his own family he leaves two sons, James A. Shafer and Frank M. Shafer, both living in the town of Sparta. The funeral will be held from the house on Sunday at 11:00 a. m. Rev. Jones of Scottsburg will officiate and interment will in Greenmount.

Eugene Forest (Gene) Trask of Winterset, Iowa, died Wednesday, February 18th, 2015. He was 100 years old. Gene was born in Laredo, Missouri, on September 21st, 1914, to Leffel and Myrtle (Meeker) Trask. He lived through some very tough times in his youth, including the Great Railroad Strike of 1922, which greatly affected his family, the Depression, and a personal bout with diphtheria. After moving to Washington, Iowa with his parents and sister, Raymah (Trask) Dawson, for his father's job on the Milwaukee Road, he graduated from high school there in 1933 and went on to attend a two-year course at Washington Junior College. He played football in college and was an avid outdoorsman. Prior to the war, he worked at the local YMCA and for a CCC Camp. He met his beloved wife, Evelyn Eyestone, on the tennis court in 1940. After he entered the Army in 1942, while he was on leave, they drove to Canton, Missouri to be married on February 10, 1943. While stationed in France, Gene was hit in the leg with a mortar shell that went through his thigh. He recovered from that injury due to the brave actions of a Captain Dr. Havel. He received the Purple Heart for his service. After his recovery and discharge, he became a watchmaker and owned a business, Trask Jewelry, on the square in Winterset from 1956 to 1988. He was also well known for riding an old fashioned, high-wheel bicycle in parades, which he made himself. He was an active member of the First Christian Church and served on the Winterset Fire Department for 30 years. His two children, David and Nancy, knew him as a loving and supportive husband and father who loved life and all its natural wonders. Gene is survived by his son, David (Judy) Trask and daughter, Nancy Trask; four grandchildren, Julie (Alan) Feirer, Jeff (Jen) Trask, Austin Rader, and Ashleigh Rader; and four great-grandchildren: Jacob, Grady, and

CJ Trask and Mara Feirer. He was preceded in death by his parents, Leffel and Myrtle (Meeker) Trask; his sister, Raymah Dawson, and his wife, Evelyn (Eyestone) Trask. -

Jean R. Knight, 89, passed away Thursday, June 9, 2011 at Fountain West Care Center in West Des Moines. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, June 15, 2011 at the First Christian Church with burial at Highland Memory Gardens. Visitation will be one hour prior to the services at the church. Jean R. Knight was born on July 6, 1921 in Washington, Iowa, the daughter of Charles Leslie and Alta Cora Rebecca (Hampsher) Eyestone. She graduated as co-valedictorian from Brighton High School in 1939 and attended Iowa State University. Jean taught country school and later was a preschool teacher. On June 29, 1940, she married Joseph W. Knight and moved into a new home at 6015 University Avenue, residing there until Joe's passing. Jean was baptized and became a member of the First Christian Church in 1940, serving as a Sunday school teacher for 49 years. She was a Master Gardener, Botanical Center Volunteer, and, along with her husband, Joe, they built the first Children's Tunnel at the Iowa State Fair in the Children's Garden. She was a volunteer at the Veteran's Hospital for 30 years. She was a member of the Rebecca Lodge Order of the Eastern Star. She enjoyed music and played the organ for many years. In her later years, Jean celebrated life by enjoying many activities offered where she resided. She was a source of inspiration to many. Jean will be missed by her children, June (Les) Nutter, Paul (Sandy) Knight, Patti (Len) Odegaard; her grandchildren; a sister, Louise Whetstine; and a brother-in-law, Gene Trask. She was preceded in death by her husband of 67 years, Joseph; sisters, Dorothy Elmore, Geneva Zihlman, Evelyn Trask, and Norma Icenbice; and brothers, Clifford and Leslie Dale. Memorial contributions may be made to the First Christian Church. ARRANGEMENTS BY ILES FUNERAL HOMES ~ WESTOVER CHAPEL.

Biography 1859 - 1938

Born in East Lampeter Township, Lancaster County on July 1, 1859, the Honorable John Homsher was the son of Jacob and Rachel Groff Homsher. While a child, his parents moved to Strasburg, Lancaster County in 1865, where John attended public schools and worked on a neighbor's farm. The senator became a traveling salesman for A.W. Wright of Philadelphia, a painting and medical supplies company, eventually graduating from Millersville State Normal School. He taught public schools in Eden and Salisbury for a period, studied law, became a surveyor-conveyancer, and a publisher of legal blanks. John married Harriet Viola Eager of Strasburg in 1884. The senator embarked on a printing career in 1892, emerging as publisher of the Strasburg News in 1898. He also printed the Justice of the Peace, a companion paper targeted to local members of the judiciary. Homsher served as a member of the Lancaster General Hospital board of directors and occupied a seat on the Millersville State Teachers College board. John served a 16-year stint as a Lancaster County magistrate, 1883-1899, before embarking on a legislative career. He participated as a delegate to the 1897 and 1898 state Republican conventions prior to his first term in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives (1900). After service in the House, Homsher embarked on a 30-year Senate career, continuing through 1938. He succeeded William Sproul as GOP caucus leader and secured the president's pro tempore post from 1924 through 1926, returning to the Senate's head office from 1934 to 1936. Homsher chaired Canals and Inland Navigation, 1909-1910; Congressional Apportionment, 1911-1914; City Passenger Railways, 1915-1920, 1931-1934; Agriculture, 1921-1922; Elections, 1923-1924; Corporations, 1927-1930; and Banks, 1933-1934. Similar to the records of Grady, Smith, and Buckman, Homsher's legislative accomplishments are extensive. During his early years, the senator supported Boies Penrose in joint-caucus U.S. Senate elections, backing bills establishing the Legislative Reference Bureau, the Pittsburgh-Allegheny City consolidation, the 1909 and 1911 public school system bills, the Anthracite and Bituminous Coal Mine Safety Acts, and the Sproul highway bills. He championed the 1923 State Highway Act, the (amended) Motor Vehicle Act of 1911, its 1923 successor – the Motor Vehicle Title Act, and the 1917 Snyder Free Library Act. While he opposed much of Gifford Pinchot's progressive agenda (both terms), particularly legislation abolishing the tax payment stipulation as a voter qualification, he promoted voting, ballot, election, and uniform primary reform. He advocated free court-appointed legal representation for those incapable of paying an attorney and voted pro-labor on the Full Crew Repealer Act of 1921. Homsher supported the women's suffrage and prohibition amendments to the U.S. Constitution, voted for the creation of the Pennsylvania Department of Welfare, sponsored the banking and Insurance Department Acts (pursuant to the 1913 Federal Reserve Act), the 1915 Title Insurance Bill, and the Tompkins Bill, providing the Public Teachers and Employees Retirement Act. Homsher led passage of Governor Earle's depression era (1935) bill creating the State General and Municipal Authorities, a centerpiece of controversy for over a decade. As well, the senator objected to the Earle administration's proposed 1936, $203 million emergency tax program, appointing Charles Ealy to lead a committee to investigate "reported abuses" concerning relief disbursements and the Earle administration's "failure to produce (New Deal) cash." Throughout the Earle "Little New Deal," Homsher opposed the state and federal government's increasing dependence on direct relief, favoring with the GOP caucus, work relief and the revitalization of the Keystone State's devastated manufacturing industry. The Honorable John Homsher died of a heart attack at his Strasburg home, September 13, 1938, while a seated senator. At the time of his death, Homsher was the oldest member to have ever served in the state legislature, at age 79. A special session called at the time of his passing, he missed the only opening gavel of his 38-year career. The Senate adjourned on the news of his death. His son Fred L. Homsher succeeded John in the Senate. Intelligencer Journal (Lancaster), September 14, 1938; Senate Journal, April 11, 1935; Pennsylvania Manual, 1931.

206. GEORGE OTIS⁷ HOMSHER (AMOS⁶, JACOB⁵, DANIEL⁴, ANTHONY (ANTON)³, JOHANN MARTIN (MARINUS)² HAMSCHEER, MATTHEUS¹ HAMBSCHER) was born Nov 04, 1857 in Lucas County, Iowa, and died Nov 18, 1948 in Chariton, Lucas County, Iowa. Burial: Chariton Cemetery, Chariton, Lucas County, Iowa. He married EMMA ELIZABETH GOLTRY Jun 16, 1878 in Lucas County, Iowa. She was born May 06, 1860 in Lucas County, Iowa, and died Mar 13, 1931 in Pasadena, Los Angeles County, California. Burial: Chariton Cemetery, Chariton, Lucas County, Iowa.

THE CHARITON LEADER Chariton, Iowa November 23, 1948

George Otis Homsher, son of Nancy and Amos Homsher, was born on a farm on the Mormon Trail in 1857 and passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Rex Retherford, November 18, 1948. He was married in 1878 to Emma E. Goltry who preceded him in death in 1931. One sister, Mrs. Emma Duncan, of Burlington, died several years ago. He was the father of eight children. Two sons, Amos and Frank, preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn his passing Clarence Homsher and Bertha Retherford of Chariton; Harry Homsher and Nell Clowser of Los Angeles, Calif.; Warren Homsher of Moscow, Idaho, and Clyde Homsher of Seattle, Wash. Also 18 grandchildren, two step-granddaughters, 25 great grandchildren and 28 great great grandchildren. His entire life was spent in Chariton with exception of a few years in California. He was a kind and loving father and was loved by all who knew him. Funeral services were held from the Miley Funeral home Sunday, November 21, at 1:30 p.m. The Rev. W.L. Peters officiating. Burial was made in Chariton cemetery.

THE CHARITON PATRIOT Chariton, Iowa March 19, 1931

Mrs. Geo. Homsher, formerly of this place, died in Pasadena, California, on March 13, 1931, aged 70 years 10 months and 7 days, after an extended illness with a cancer. She and her husband had for some time been making their home in California with their son, Harry Homsher, and their daughter Mrs. Nell Clowser. The remains were brought to Chariton, arriving here Wednesday, accompanied by her husband, and were taken to the Beardsley Funeral Home where funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. Harry Secor, of the First Baptist church, after which interment took place in the Chariton cemetery. Emma Elizabeth Goltry, daughter of Aaron and Sarah Goltry, was born in Cedar township, Lucas county, Iowa, on May 6, 1860. She grew to young womanhood in that vicinity and was married on June 16, 1878, to George Otis Homsher, who survives her. To this union eight children were born, two of them, Amos and Frank, preceded her in death. Those living are Clarence Homsher and Mrs. Bertha Retherford of Chariton; Harry H. and Mrs. Nell Clowser of Los Angeles, California; Warren H. of Lincoln, Nebraska; Clyde H. of the state of Washington. The life of Mrs. Homsher, with the exception of a few years spent in California, had been lived in Chariton and vicinity. She was a woman loved by all who knew her for her many fine traits of character and her genial disposition. Her life had been spent in doing good for those about her and she will be greatly missed. A devoted and faithful wife and mother, a splendid neighbor, a true friend, has gone to her eternal reward. The last days of this good woman were spent in pain, owing to the nature of her affliction. She was tenderly cared for during her last illness by those who loved her. Besides her husband and children she is survived by fifteen grandchildren, nine great grandchildren and two brothers, Will Goltry of Boone, Iowa and Ed Goltry of Red Oak, Iowa, both of whom were present at the last rites. Many friends join in extending sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Children of GEORGE HOMSHER and EMMA GOLTRY are:

- i. CLARENCE EDWIN⁸ HOMSHER, b. Aug 18, 1879, Chariton, Lucas County, Iowa; d. Jul 20, 1950, Chariton, Lucas County, Iowa; Burial: Chariton Cemetery, Chariton, Lucas County, Iowa. m. Bertha Louise Homsher, daughter of Emma and George Homsher, was born March 6, 1884 in Lucas county and departed from this life at the age of 68 years, 10 months and 17 days. She was preceded in death by her parents and three brothers, Frank, Amos and Clarence Homsher. One sister, Mrs. Nelle Clowser of Los Angeles and three brothers, Harry of Los Angeles, Warren of Campbell, Calif., and Clyde of Seattle, Wash. survive her. She was united in marriage to James C. Stroud and to this union three sons were born, J. D. of Chariton, Patrick of Los Angeles and Richard of Des Moines. June 8, 1921, she was united in marriage to Rex Retherford, who with his daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Ellis of Chariton and Mrs. Louise Dernovich of Raymond, Ill., also mourn her loss. She leaves 20 grandchildren, on great-grandchild and several nieces and nephews. She became a member of the First Baptist church in Chariton and was active until the time of her death. Mrs. Retherford was a good wife, a good mother and a good neighbor, always willing to lend a helping hand where it was needed. She will be greatly missed by her loved ones and a host of friends. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. A. E. Beals of Russell at the Miley funeral home Sunday, Jan. 25, at 2 p.m. Burial was in the Chariton cemetery.

THE CHARITON LEADER Chariton, Iowa Tuesday, January 24, 1939

James Coon Stroud, son of James G. and Elmira Stroud, was born November 5, 1877, in Princeton, Mo., and passed away January 17, 1939, at the Yokum hospital in Chariton, Ia. at the age of 61 years, 2 months and 12 days. Mr. Stroud came to Chariton with his parents 60 years ago, and has been a resident of this city since that time. He was united in marriage here to Bertha Homsher, and to this union were born three sons, all of them living. His father, James G. Stroud, and one brother, Delbert, preceded him in death. James had been in ill health for about a year. James Coon Stroud was a good citizen in every sense of the word, honest and upright in all his dealings. He cared for his mother, now 95 years of age, with whom he made his home, with a tender devotion. He was ever kind to others and thoughtful of those about him and a splendid neighbor, and will be greatly missed in the home and the community. Those left to mourn his passing are his mother; one brother, Roy Stroud of Omaha, Nebr.; and one sister, Mrs. D. L. Barnett, of Chariton; his three sons, Delbert of Chariton, and Pat and Richard of Los Angeles, Calif.; and four grandchildren, besides a host of other relatives and friends. THE CHARITON LEADER Chariton, Iowa Thursday, September 9, 1926

DEATH OF AMOS HOMSHER The many friends of the family will learn with deep regret of the passing away of Amos A. Homsher, which occurred at the Government hospital in Knoxville on Tuesday, September 7, 1926, at the age of 39 years, 11 months and 25 days, after an extended illness. The remains were brought to Chariton and taken to the Beardsley Funeral Home, where funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at four o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. A. Riggs, of the Baptist church, followed by interment in the Chariton cemetery. Amos Aaron Homsher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Homsher, was born in Chariton, Iowa, on September 12, 1886, and nearly all his life was spent in this vicinity. He attended the public schools of Chariton, and later worked at the blacksmith trade and for the Chariton Telephone Company. Amos had the ability to make friends and was well known here. He volunteered in his country's service when the world war was enlisting the manhood of the nation, and was with the first group to leave Chariton for camp. He spent eight months at Camp Dodge in Des Moines, and was an apt soldier, leaving for overseas in the ninth month of his service. He was overseas for eleven months, being a member of the 313th Engineering Corps, A. E. F. He was also a member of the Chariton Volunteer Fire Department, joining that organization in the year 1919. He leaves to mourn his passing away his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Homsher, four brothers and two sisters, Clarence, Harry, Warren and Clyde, and Mrs. Rex Retherford, of Chariton; and Mrs. Olan Clowser, of Gary, Indiana. His brother, Frank, preceded him in death in the year 1913 at the age of 31 years. The sympathy of the community will be extended to all these sorrowing ones.

207. WILLIAM⁷ BUSHONG (CATHERINE⁶ HOMSHER, SAMUEL⁵, DANIEL⁴, ANTHONY (ANTON)³, JOHANN MARTIN (MARINUS)² HAMSCHER, MATTHEUS¹ HAMBSCHER) was born May 23, 1843 in Columbiana County, Ohio, and died Nov 08, 1918 in Noble County, Indiana. Burial: Rose Hill Cemetery, Albion, Noble County, Indiana. He married (1) SUSETTE WILSON 1860. She died 1865. He married (2) SARAH JANE SIMMONS Jan 08, 1868. She was born Dec 16, 1846 in Richland County, Ohio, and died Dec 16, 1932 in Avilla, Noble County, Indiana. Burial: Rose Hill Cemetery, Albion, Noble County, Indiana.

William Bushong was born in Columbiana County, Ohio May 23, 1843 and died near Albion Nov. 8, 1918, aged 75 years. He was one of a family of eleven children, three of whom, with the parents, have preceded him in death. Those surviving him are Mrs. Katherine Kinsey of South Dakota, Mrs. Joe Waltman, Mrs. Henderson Clemens, Mrs. Jane McCartney and Frank all of near Avilla, Andrew of Auburn, and John of South Milford. When he was about nine years of age, the family moved to Indiana from the Ohio home and settled southwest of Avilla. In 1860 he was married to Susette Wilson. They had two daughters, Mrs. Jane Applegate, who died about two years ago, and Mrs. Ida VanTilberg, who survives. The wife and mother died about 1865. On Aug. 9, 1868 he was married to Sarah Jane Simmons. They had three children, Mrs. Maggie Baldwin of Avilla, and Thurlow and Mrs. Fred Shew of Albion, all of whom with the widow and eleven grandchildren and six great-grandchildren survive. On Friday evening he took ill with apoplexy and lived only about two hours. He and Mrs. Bushong moved to their present home in 1874 when the land was wooded. He especially loved his grandchildren and they were always welcome at the old home. Death: 11-8-1918

Sarah Jane Bushong was born in Richland County Ohio Dec. 16, 1846 and died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jerry Albertson in Avilla on Dec. 16, 1932. Her parents were Abijah and Margaret Simmons and she was one of 10 children. All of them with the parents have preceded her in death, except one sister, Mrs. Ollie Randall of Chicago. She was married to William Bushong in 1868. They soon settled on the farm since known as the Bushong farm. It was then in woods except for a small cleared strip. They were spared 50 years together during which time they cleared the land and became successful farmers. They had three children, Margaret, who is now Mrs. Jerry Albertson of Avilla; Thurlow, who lives on the farm in Jefferson Twp; and Maude, who is now Mrs. Fred Shew of near Wolcottville. 208. SAMUEL⁷ BUSHONG (CATHERINE⁶ HOMSHER, SAMUEL⁵, DANIEL⁴, ANTHONY (ANTON)³, JOHANN MARTIN (MARINUS)² HAMSCHER, MATTHEUS¹ HAMBSCHER) was born Aug 06, 1864 in Indiana, and died Sep 09, 1911 in Rochester, Olmsted County, Minnesota. Burial: Burdette Cemetery, Burdette, Hand County, South Dakota. He married ANNIE E. BARTLETT. She was born 1874 in Avoca, Pottawattamie County, Iowa, and died May 13, 1942 in South Dakota. Burial: Burdette Cemetery, Burdette, Hand County, South Dakota.

From Samuel's obit in The Miller Press, with additions from family bio in Bring On The Pioneers - 1978: Samuel Bushong of Burdette Township died Saturday, September 9, 1911 of an abscess of the brain in a hospital in Rochester, Minnesota, where he had gone for treatment. His funeral was held Wednesday at his home with a large attendance. Burial was in the Burdette Cemetery. Samuel Bushong was born May 6, 1864 in Indiana and came to Burdette Township, Hand County, South Dakota in 1885 where he resided until his death. He first worked as hired man for Robert Q. Kenyon and later George R. Mason. In 1895, the SW 1/4 of Sec 2 and the W 1/2 of Sec 11 were deeded to him from William Bartlett, who had filed a homestead here in 1889. In 1895, he and Annie E. (Bartlett), daughter of William, were married. They became the parents of four children: Maybelle, Hubert, Joseph, and Annabelle. In 1896, Samuel filed on a claim on the SE 1/4 of Sec 12, on which he built a home where he would live until his death in 1911. Samuel was a successful farmer and owned one of the finest farms in Hand County. He raised, fed, and shipped hogs and cattle by the carload, and was one of the first farmers to have an auto. He also held township offices and was a genial man of commanding appearance. He was highly respected by all who knew him.*

Commemorative biographical record of the counties of Sandusky and Ottawa, Ohio. Chicago: J H Beers & Co. 1896 943 pages Solomon Rinebolt, a prosperous farmer of Jackson township, Sandusky county, was born in Perry county, Ohio, February 28, 1824. He is the eldest son of Abraham and Susan (Hampsher) Rinebolt, natives of Pennsylvania, who had a family of children as follows: (1) Solomon, subject of this sketch. (2) Lydia, wife of Paul Kline, whose children are John, Levi, Noah and Mary. (3) John, who married Rebecca Harley, by whom he had a son, Jacob, now living at Kendallville, Ind.; after her death he married Amanda Seltzer, and had children as follows - Abraham, Mary, John, Mahala, three sons that died in childhood, William Franklin (who died at the age of eleven), Lafayette (who married Anna Fink, and has one son - Russell), and Della (who married Birchard Henry, and has two children - Larry and Glenn). (4) Catharine, wife of George Engler, living in Indiana. (5) Mary, who wedded George Bubb, and has four children. (6) Lovina, wife of David Harley, who had children as follows - Frank, Levi, Wmma and Ada.

Solomon Rinebolt, subject of this memoir, grew up to the toilsome labors of farm life in a new country, and developed into a thrifty, successful worker and a good citizen. His sandy hair, ruddy face, piercing eyes, almost hidden under heavy eyebrows, friendly countenance and genial good nature, have long distinguished him among the old-time "Black Swampers." With a keen eye for bargains in real estate, he purchased farm after farm in his vicinity, until he was able to give each of his children a farm and reserve an eighty-acre lot for himself. He has always been a Democrat in politics, and he and his wife are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. In 1848 when twenty-four years of age, Solomon Rinebolt married Miss Sarah Elizabeth Seltzer, who was born April 25, 1828, in Lancaster county, Penn., daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (Miller) Seltzer. The result of their union were children as follows: (1) Susan E. born October 23, 1849, died June 30, 1886; she became the wife of Frank Ventling, who had one son, James, now living at Port Clinton, Ohio. (2) Noah, born March 12, 1851, who married Emma Myers, by whom he had one son. Frederick, who died in childhood, and two daughters Viola and Lizzie: after the wife's death in 1888, he wedded Helen Dunlap, by whom he had a daughter, Fern, living at home. (3) Harriet, born September 10, 1852, became the wife of David Winchell; their daughter, Myra, married Frank Wagner, and has two daughters - Stella and Hazel. (4) Adam, born December 16, 1853, married Kate Rigler, and had three children - Arthur, Bertha and Estella. (5) Mary R., born October 25, 1855, married Wesley Hartman, and had two children - Alice who wedded a Mr. Campbell, and Vernie, living at home, after a legal separation from her husband. Mary R. Hartman married David Day, by whom she has one son - Otto. (6) Sarah Ellen, born August 10, 1858 married Frank Chaney, and had four children - Pearl, May, Augusta, and Arthur. (7) Ora Alice born June 7, 1865 married Frank Ickes, and they have two children - Alpha and Grace. Mrs. Sarah E. Rinebolt is a lineal descendant of Michael Seltzer, who according to a family tradition started to death in a church building during the Revolutionary war. He had three sons - Abraham, John and Michael. Abraham Seltzer lived in southeastern Pennsylvania, where he married Miss Catherine, daughter of Philip Faust, and had children as follows: Joseph, Polly, Elizabeth, Michael, Catharine, Rebecca and Nathaniel. Joseph Seltzer moved to Sandusky county in Pioneer days married Elizabeth Miller, who was born 1809, and had children as follows: Elizabeth (wife of Solomon Rinebolt) Joseph, Amanda (wife of John Rinebolt) Nathan, Catharine, Henry, Susannah (wife of Frank Edwards), Mary (wife of L. Donnels). Ella, Emma, and Abraham. The descendants of these families are scattered over various parts of the United States.

Jonathan Dicken to be Buried Sunday - The funeral services of Jonathan Dicken, who died Thursday will be held from the family residence at 120 West Culbertson Street Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. H.L. Fox, pastor of the Evangelical church of which Mr. Dicken was a member, will officiate. Mr. Diken, who had attained the advanced age of 87 years, had suffered some little time from bowel trouble brought on it is believed by his constant care of Mrs. Dicken who suffered a stroke of apoplexy about a month ago. It was feared Mrs. Dicken would not survive the shock, but her condition is reported a little more encouraging today. At the age of five years, Mr. Dicken accompanied his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dicken from Bedford, PA., to Liberty township on the present location of Amsden. That section was very wild then and in his early manhood he helped to clear the land, being engaged throughout his long life in agricultural pursuits. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Sarah Stahl before their marriage April 10, 1854. Three of the five children born to that union survive. They are Francis Dicken, of Litchfield, Mich.; Charles of Amsden and Mrs. Mary E. Long, who has lived with and cared for her parents a number of years. Eight grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren also survive.

Children of SARAH STAHL and JONOTHAN DICKEN are:

- i. JOHN WESLEY⁸ DICKEN, b. Jan 03, 1856, Jackson Twp, Seneca County, Ohio; d. Jun 1917, Liberty Twp., Seneca County, Ohio; m. PRISCILLA SUSANNA RILEY, Mar 18, 1880.

GEORGE H. HAMPSHIRE

George Hampshire, for many years one of the leading well-to-do farmers and extensive landowners of Portage township, Wood county, is now living retired from active work, enjoying the prosperity which he acquired by hard work during his early years. He is a native of Ohio, born February 1, 1831 in Morgan County, near Eagleport, son of Jonas and Mary (Swope) Hampshire. George Hampshire passed all he early life in a pioneer region and he was initiated into the mysteries of agriculture in a new country at a tender age. They lived two miles from a school and, work at home being plenty, he as the eldest son could not be spared from the farm, so that the greater part of his education has been acquired by his own efforts. On December 4, 1851, he was married, in Jackson township, Seneca county, to Miss Nancy Foster, who was born in that township February 8, 1833, daughter of Christian Foster, who came to Seneca county from Perry county, this State in an early day. After his marriage our subject farmed on his father's land, in Seneca county, until January 31, 1865, when he removed to Wood county, taking up his home on an eight-acre tract in Section 33, Portage township, of which at that time but two acres were cleared, and seven acres chopped and the dwelling and farm buildings were but rude structures. Mr. Hampshire was obliged to go in debt $500 for this tract, and he at once set to work to make it productive, succeeding so well that he was later enabled to buy eight acres adjoining his original purchase. He also has 110 acres in Bloom township, being the owner, altogether of 270 acres of excellent farm land. Mr. Hampshire does not now engage in active farm work, having acquired a snug competence for his declining years. He is, indeed, a self-made man, and throughout his business career he has retained his honorable standing among his fellowmen, who esteem him for his many sterling qualities. He has been a trustee in his township two terms, and has also served as school director, but he is no politician, and, though he is a Democrat in sentiment, he supports the best man, regardless of parties. Mr. and Mrs. Hampshire have had children as follows; Amanda (now Mrs. Daniel Smith), of Liberty township; Mary E. (Mrs. A.W. Lefler), of Toledo; Jonas H., who was deputy sheriff of Wood county and a registered pharmacist, and now living on a farm of ninety acres of his own, one and one-half miles from Bowling Green; Magdalena R. (Mrs. J.D. Simons), of Findlay, Ohio; Lucinda, living at home; Alice M. (Mrs. Charles Harnard), of Portage township; Christ C. a farmer of Bloom township; Charles W., at home; and Cora E., who died when four years old. In religious connections, Mr. and Mrs. Hampshire are active member of the Radical United Brethren Church, and he is at present serving as trustee.

263. RACHEL⁷ HAMPSHIRE (JONAS WASHINGTON⁶, BARNET JR.⁵, BARNET⁴ HAMPSHER, JOHN ADAM³ HAMPSCHER, BERNHARD² HAMBSCHER, MATTHEUS¹) was born Apr 08, 1842 in Fostoria, Seneca Co, Ohio, and died Oct 09, 1883 in Henry Twsp, Wood Co, Ohio. She married SOLOMON S. FREDERICK Apr 09, 1862 in Ohio. He was born Aug 12, 1839 in Big Spring twp, Seneca County, Ohio, and died Dec 05, 1917 in Wood County, Ohio.

Notes for SOLOMON S. FREDERICK:

Commemorative Historical and Biographical Record of Wood County, Ohio

Solomon S. Frederick devotes his time and energies to farming and carpentering, and is an enterprising, wide-awake citizen, who faithfully does his duty to his fellow men, himself and his country. As he is widely and favorably known in Wood county, we feel assured that the record of his life will prove of interest to any of our readers. Mr. Frederick was born August 12, 1839, in Big Spring township, Seneca County, Ohio, son of Anthony and Rhoda (Neffis) Frederick. The former was born in September, 1816, in Ross county, Ohio, the latter in 1818, and their marriage was celebrated in Wyandotte county. Subsequently removing to Seneca county, he purchased a farm of forty acres on which he lived ten years, and then removed to Adrian, Seneca County, where he operated a sawmill for a number of years. His (Anthony Frederick) next place of residence was Crawford county, Ohio, where he engaged in the same line of business until, returning to Adrian, Seneca county, thence to Berwick, where he accepted the position of bookkeeper in a gristmill. In 1860 he brought his family by wagon to Wood county, purchased a small tract of land in Bloom township, and erected a sawmill. He afterward purchased 120 acres additional, and he and his wife are now living retired at Bloom Center. Their children were as follows: Solomon S.' William, of Jerry City, Ohio; Nathaniel, who died at the age of forty-two; Charles who died in Bloom township; Byron, a farmer of Bloom township; Susan, deceased wife of John Bailey, of Bloom township; and Rose, wife of William H. Dennis, of Bloom Center, Ohio. In his boyhood days, Mr. Frederick attended the district schools, and he remained under the parental roof until twenty-two years of age. He then learned the trade of carpentering, which he has since followed in connection with farming. On April 9, 1862, Mr. Frederick chose, as a companion and helpmate on life's journey, Miss Rachel Hampshire, a native of Wood county, Ohio. To their marriage were born ten children, namely; George B., a miller of Bloom Center; Mary B., wife of George Apel, of Henry township; Charles, a farmer of Jackson township, Rosie, wife of Carey Baringer, of Bloom township; Rhoda, wife of Frank Mercer; Alice, wife of Oliver Baringer; and Myrtie and Lettie, at home. The mother of these died in 1883, and in 1886 Mr. Frederick married Mrs. Rebecca J. Briton, who was born November 1, 1853, daughter of Morgan and Mary M. (Thompson) Blue, of Henry county. To the second marriage have been born two children - William R., at home; and Jennie N., who died in infancy. By her first marriage Mrs. Frederick had three children; Hattie B., (who died in infancy). Ova N. and Amos A. In 1872 Mr. Frederick located on his present farm, which he had purchased six years previously, and he is now devoting his energies to the cultivation of his eighty acres of rich farming land. He is an energetic, industrious man, and ranks among the leading agriculturists of the community. During the Civil war he manifested his loyalty to the government by enlisting, in 1864, in Company H, 49th O.V.I., joining the regiment at Tiffin, Ohio. He soon went to the front, and participated in the battles of Buzzard's Roost, Resaca, Pickett's Mills and Kenesaw Mountain. and was discharged November 30, 1865, at Victoria, Texas. In politics he is a Republican, and he has served for eight years as both as supervisor and school director, discharging his duties in a prompt and capable manner.

Eugene died 2 weeks after an explosion. He was 39 and lived in Cygnet where he was an Oil Gauger for Buckeye Pipeline, inspecting a tank with an electric light that sparked and was blown high into the air and landed 10 feet from the fire. John Blatz, a neighboring farmer gathered him in his arms, risking life, to carry Eugene away. No witness to the actual blast but was felt. He died in Findley Hospital with fractured leg, bad lacerations, burns about the head and body and was unconscious from shock. 200 workmen from the area were called with picks and shoves to shore up the dikes around the burning tank. He was a member of Modern Woodman Lodge for a number of years and united with the Church of Christ at Jerry City in 1915. The oil blast caused $28,000 damage and destroyed 20,000 barrels of oil, and threatened other tanks of the storage farm of the Imperial Oil Co.

From a book on Wood County, Ohio page 1148

Amos Hampshire, a prominent and influential agriculturist of Perry township, is descended from one of the earliest pioneer families of Seneca county, Ohio. His birth occurred there march 20, 1849, and he is a son of Adam and Margaret Shonts Hampshire, the former a native of Muskingum county, and the latter of Stark county, Ohio. As Amos Hampshire was the eldest son, there was always plenty of work for him to do on the farm, and education was considered a secondary matter. Though his own privileges in that direction were limited, he is a great friend of the cause of education, and does all in his power for its advancement. He remained upon the home farm until his marriage, which was celebrated in Perry township, November 19, 1872, when Miss Emma Strouse became his wife. A native of Montgomery township, Wood county, she is the daughter of George Strouse, and, by her marriage she has become the mother of two children- Amanda M. and George A., both of whom are well-known young people of the community. Mr. Hampshire located on his present farm of eighty acres in Section 11, Perry township, where he has made many excellent improvements - a good home has replaced his firs log house, and, where at present is one of his best fields, he once cradled wheat when the water covered the ground about one-half foot deep. It was an arduous task, but he succeeded in making his place one of the best in the township. He is a wide-awake, public-spirited man, and very popular with all who know him. Politically Mr. Hampshire votes the straight Democratic ticket, and has served as constable in Perry township, and for over seventeen years has been school director of District No. 7. Socially he is connected with the Odd Fellows Lodge of Rising son, Ohio; in religious faith, his wife is a member of the Evangelical Church.

Grandma Hampshire died at Risingsun

Risingsun, O. Dec. 4, 1936 - Mrs. Emma Hampshire, better known as grandma Hampshire, died this morning at 4:45 a.m. in the home of her daughter Mrs. Amanda Whitman, about 2 miles southwest of this place. Grandma Hampshire had been in ill health since last March, finally succumbing to a complication of diseases. She was born Dec. 23, 1852. funeral services will be held Monday, Dec. 7, 2:00 p.m. at the Sullivan funeral home, Fostoria. Mrs. Hampshire in her spare time, wove rag rugs. Many beautiful rugs were turned out by her labors. People came from many miles to have her weave for them. Besides her daughter she leaves one son, George Hampshire, Risingsun; three grandchildren and one great grandchild and a host of friends and relatives.

Gospel Herald - Vol. XVII, No. 51 - March 26, 1925:

Hamsher - Susan Weaver was born in Elkhart Co., Ind., Apr. 2, 1867; united in marriage with Levi Hamsher March 14, 1886. To this union was born one daughter (Mrs. Nellie Furney). In 1887 she united with the Mennonite Church, at the age of 20 years, remaining a member until death. A paralytic stroke deprived her of the use of her left side for 19 years. For the last six months she was confined to her bed, with much pain and suffering. She peacefully fell asleep, Nov. 27, 1924; aged 57 y. 7 m. 25 d. One daughter and her husband, 3 grandchildren (Mary, Elizabeth, and Helen Furney) one sister (Mrs. Levi Cupp) mourn her departure. Their loss is her eternal gain. The funeral was held from North Main St. Mennonite Church, Nappanee, Ind., by D. J. Troyer and J. H. McGowen. Text, John 14:1-3. Burial in Union Cemetery.

Child of LEVI HAMSHER and SUSAN WEAVER is:

323. SUSAN HARRIET⁷ HUSS (MARGARET⁶ HAMPSHER, JACOB⁵, DANIEL⁴ HAMPSHER, JOHN ADAM³ HAMPSCHER, BERNHARD² HAMBSCHER, MATTHEUS¹) was born Jan 01, 1844 in Bloomville, Seneca County, Ohio, and died Oct 01, 1897 in Holt, Taylor County, Iowa. Burial: Guss Cemetery, Guss, Taylor County, Iowa. She married NATHANIEL EDGAR EELLS Apr 28, 1866 in Johnson County, Iowa. He was born Jul 06, 1839 in Columbiana County, Ohio, and died Jul 23, 1910 in Topeka, Shawnee County, Kansas. Burial: Guss Cemetery, Guss, Taylor County, Iowa.

Nathlonal [Nathaniel] E. [dgar] Eells was born near New Lisbon, Columbia[na] County, Ohio, July 6, 1839, and died in Christs Hospital at Topeka, Kan., July 23, 1910. His age was 71 years and 17 days. At the age of 4 years and in the year of 1843 he came with his parents to Iowa and settled on a farm 10 miles north of Iowa City. Aug. 9, 1862, he enlisted in Co. G Iowa volunteer infantry and served till the close of the civil war. On May 1, 1866, he was united in marriage to Miss Susan H. Huss. To this union were born four sons and one daughter. The four sons survive him. In the year 1873 he moved from his home in Johnson County and settled on a farm near Guss. At his first Iowa home in Johnson County he lived thirty years, except the time spent in the service of his country. He lived twenty-eight years on his farm in Taylor County near Guss. In 1897 his companion died and since that time he has made his home mostly with his eldest son, Rev. M. H. Eells, now of Beattie, Kans. The cause of his death was enlarged prostate gland together with a wasting of the vital forces. For about forty years he was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and died in the faith of his beloved Zion. It was ever his aim and purpose to be a kind husband, a good father and a respected citizen.

History of Taylor County, Iowa

EELLS, N. E., farmer, section nineteen, post-office Holt, born in Columbiana county, Ohio, July 6, 1839. When four years of age his parents moved to Johnson county, Iowa. There the subject of this sketch experienced the hardships of pioneer life, as he assisted his parents in making a home on the bleak prairies of Iowa in the days of its early settlement. He enlisted August 6, 1862, in the Twenty-second Iowa, company G, and served until the close of the war. Took part in the battles of Port Gibson, Champion's Hill, Black River and Jackson, also in the siege of Vicksburg. Was wounded at Jackson, had his clothes torn by bullets and his gun broken at Cedar Creek. Was discharged at Savannah, Georgia, July 25, 1865, and returned to Johnson county. He came to this county in 1873. Was married May 1, 1875, to Miss Harriet Huss, of Johnson county. They have five children: H. M., Effie L., H. E., Lunie O. and John L. He is the fortunate possessor of a fine farm of two hundred acres, excellent improvements and yard adorned with shade and ornamental trees. Mr. and Mrs. Eells are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Bedford Free Press (Bedford, Iowa), Thursday, December 20, 1906, [p. 1] Mrs. E. H. Eells Dead.

Mrs. Lucy O. Eells was born in Sandusky County, Ohio, 61 years ago. She died Sunday night at her home in North Bedford about midnight, from cancer of the liver, after long months of suffering. About a week ago she was taken to the hospital at St. Joseph with the hopes that the treatment there would cure her; but after an examination the physicians at once saw that her case was hopeless and so informed her. Realizing that her death was near at hand her greatest anxiety was to return to her home, which she loved so well, before the death messenger called her. She was brought back but only for a few short hours. When but nine years of age she left her Ohio home with her parents and came to Iowa, locating in Johnson County. While living there she was united in marriage to Mr. E. H. Eells, in September 1871. To this union two children were born, both grown to womanhood and were with their mother when the final summons came. In her home she was all that a loving wife and devoted mother could be. Home was her especial sphere, where her duties were her pleasure. Early in life she united with the Methodist church, in which she has since been a faithful worker and consistent member. After a short funeral service at the late home of the deceased, in Bedford, conducted by Rev. W. B. Thompson, the remains were taken to Guss Wednesday morning for interment. The sympathy of a large circle of friends is extended to the bereaved relatives and heartbroken husband.

Bedford Times-Republican (Bedford, Iowa), Thursday, December 20, 1906 Called Hence

Mrs. E. H. Eells died at her home in north Bedford, Monday morning at 12:05 o'clock, aged 61 years, 4 months and 2 days. Short services were held at the home Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock and immediately thereafter the cortege left for Guss, the old home of the decedent. At 2 p. m. the funeral, conducted by Rev. Thompson, was held in Maple Grove church at Guss. Interment was made at Maple Grove cemetery. Lucy O. [ctavia] Huss was born in Sandusky County, Ohio, August 15, 1845. When 9 years of age she moved with her parents to Johnson County, Iowa. There she resided until 1871, and there it was she met and wedded E. [lections] H. [oyt] Eells, the husband with whom she lived for more than a third of a century. On September 9, 1871, these two were united in marriage and one month later departed for Taylor County, where ever after they made their home. Holt Township was where they decided to locate, and there for 27 years they resided on the same farm upon which they settled during the days of their honeymoon. Eight years ago they decided to leave the farm and purchasing a home in north Bedford, they moved to the city, and here the deceased spent the last years of her life. During their married life two children came to bless their home. Both are girls, and both now married, reside in this county. Mrs. Ella Liebhart, with her husband, lives on the old home place in Holt Township, while the other daughter, Mrs. Orpha Rogers, lives at New Market. Chas. Huss, a brother of the deceased, resides in Holt Township, and her sister, Mrs. Sarah Weller, lives in Nodaway. These two were all of the ten brothers and sisters who were present at the obsequies. Until some four years ago Mrs. Eells was a woman of good health, but about that time she was taken ill with typhoid fever from the effects of which she never fully recovered. Although she was able to be up and around, the ravages of that disease seemed to have undermined her health, and ever since she has been slowly but surely failing. Two weeks ago her condition became extremely critical and it was decided to take her to the hospital at St. Joseph with the one faint hope that an operation might prolong her life. This hope proved vain, the surgeons deciding that an operation would only hasten the inevitable. As soon as Mrs. Eells realized her condition she insisted on being brought home. She knew she was soon to die and wanted to bid farewell to the world at home and among loved ones. Buoyed by this hope she survived the journey and arrived here Saturday night, but on Sunday night just after midnight her spirit took flight to the bourn from whence no traveler e'er returns. The deceased was an active member of the Methodist church for more than a quarter of a century, a consistent church member and an ardent and true Christian. By her death the community loses a kind neighbor who was always ready to answer any call of distress or suffering and her husband and children lose a loving wife, a devoted mother.

Villisca Review (Villisca, Iowa), Wednesday, January 23, 1901, [p. 1]

Guss – Chas. F. [remont] Guss died last Thursday, January 17, at the age of 44 years, 1 month and 13 days. He was born in Putnam County, Illinois, December 4, 1856 and came with his parents to Taylor county in 1873. He was married to her who was Sarrah [Sarah] A. Huss May 1, 1888, and to them were born five children, two girls and three boys, two of the latter, Mark and Ray, preceding their father to the better land. Deceased was a member of the M. E. church from early manhood and in his death it loses a faithful and earnest worker. Mr. Guss was an old resident of the neighborhood in which he lived and his friends were many. He commanded the respect of everybody and is now most sadly missed by all. The funeral was held at Guss last Friday forenoon at eleven o'clock, Rev. Dudley of this city conducting the services. The loving companion and children have the deepest sympathy of many friends.

Villisca Review (Villisca, Iowa), Friday, April 15, 1932, p. 4 J. N. Weller, Who Formerly Lived Near Here Dies J. N. Weller, for many years a resident of the vicinity southeast of Villisca, died Saturday evening at his home at Morgan Hill, Calif., where he had lived during the last eighteen years. A telegram telling of his death was received here Sunday by his son, W. [illiam] A. [ncel] Weller of southeast of Villisca. J. [ames] N. [orman] Weller was born March 14, 1845 in New York State and came to Taylor county, Iowa, forty years ago, settling southeast of Villisca. He was married to Emily McCain in Wisconsin and to them six children were born, one of whom died in his youth. Those living are W. [illiam] A. [ncel] Weller of Villisca, J. [ames] F. [red] Weller of Ida Grove, Iowa, Mrs. Nellie McCarty and Herbert Weller of Billings, Mont. and L. [awrence] E. [dgar] Weller of Morgan Hill, Calif. The wife and mother died here in December, 1898. Mr. Weller was married in 1909 to Mrs. Sarah Guss of the Guss vicinity and in 1912 they moved to Texas where they lived two years, going from there to California where they have since made their home on a fruit farm. Besides his wife and children, Mr. Weller leaves also three stepchildren, Mrs. Grace Ralston of Lake City, Iowa, Miss Alta Guss of Morgan Hill, Calif., and Earl Guss of Michigan. Mr. Weller was a member of the M. E. church. His body, accompanied by his wife and the son, L. [awrence] E. [dgar] Weller, is expected to arrive in Villisca this Friday morning and it will be taken to the W. A. Weller home to await the funeral which will be held Saturday at 2:30 p. m. in the M. Notes for HARRIET RESSLER:

Harriet R. Miller, 93, of Strasburg, died Tuesday morning, October 22, following a brief stay at The Mennonite Home, Lancaster. A former owner and editor of The Strasburg Weekly News, she was the wife of the late J. Franklin Miller, who died in 1996. Born September 7, 1920 at 140 W. Main St., Strasburg, she was the daughter of the late Ezra Day Ressler and Mary Elizabeth Homsher Ressler.

A graduate of Strasburg High School, she received her bachelor's degree in English from West Chester State Teachers College in 1942, and taught in the old Lampeter Elementary School. For many years Harriet wrote the well-read "One Hundred," "Seventy-Five," "Fifty" and "Twenty-Five Years Ago" columns for The News.

Harriet joined First Presbyterian Church of Strasburg in 1935 and faithfully served in many ways: as an ordained elder and deacon, substitute organist, Sunday school teacher and choir member. Active on the Outreach Committee, she was a member of Presbyterian Women and the Rebecca Circle. Strasburg's historian, Harriet was a charter and life member of The Strasburg Heritage Society, for which she had been general chairman of the annual Heritage Day, and served on the committee creating The Strasburg Heritage Cook Book. The first woman elected as Director of the Lampeter-Strasburg School Board, Harriet was a member of the Strasburg Auxiliary to Lancaster General Hospital and served as Secretary of the Strasburg High School Alumni Association for many years. She was often the local fundraising chairman for many charitable organizations. Her volunteer efforts included delivering food for Paradise Meals-on-Wheels and playing the piano weekly for the children of Sunshine Corners. She is survived by her daughter, Sarah Miller Schreiner of Wynnewood, and her son, Henry Day married to Holly Leber Miller of Strasburg; four grandchildren, and a great-granddaughter. Her grandchildren will remember her boundless love, wonderful gingerbread-house-making skills, and delicious shoo-fly pies. A Service of Resurrection will be held Tuesday, October 29, at 11 a.m. (visitation begins at 10 a.m.) at First Presbyterian Church of Strasburg, 101 S. Decatur St., with the Rev. Robert K. Bronkema officiating. Interment will be in Strasburg Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in Harriet's name to First Presbyterian Church Building Fund, 101 S. Decatur St., Strasburg PA 17579, or to The Clinic for Special Children, PO Box 128, Strasburg PA 17579. (Lancaster Intelligencer Journal/New Era 10/24/2013)

Burial: Riverview Burial Park, Lancaster, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania.

Mildred Homsher Eshleman was born June 30th, 1928, in Pequea Township, PA, the second of five children born to Harry F. Mull and Ada Homsher Mull. She died peacefully at the age of 89 in her home in Willow Street, PA, on Friday, December 8th, after a long bout with cancer. Despite humble beginnings, Millie-as most knew her-always felt that she had much for which to be grateful. Even in her last days, she was quick to thank her caregivers and express appreciation for the smallest of enjoyments. Throughout her life, she loved deeply, playfully, and widely. Her kindness and generosity were legendary, backed by a quiet, unassuming strength. In addition to her children, she leaves behind many who are both immensely thankful for her presence in their lives and inspired by her example. Millie grew up in and around Lancaster, PA. She was a 1946 graduate of McCaskey High School and began her work career as an employee of Kirk Johnson and by Armstrong Cork Co. She met her husband, Arthur (Art) Eshleman, at Rocky Springs skating rink. According to a family story, she arrived that evening for another date, but left with Art on the back of his motorcycle. The two wed in 1949 and settled in Willow Street. Shortly before the birth of their first child, Art was deployed for service in the Army during the Korean War. While he was away, Millie began supplementing the family income by babysitting children in her home, the start of a thirty-year career which touched a remarkable number of lives. During that career, she babysat over 300 different children. Due to the volume of children, the school district added a bus stop in front of her house, and toward the end of her babysitting career, she was featured in the newspaper on two occasions. On the first, a newspaper photographer driving by her home snapped a photo of a tree whose limbs were overflowing with fourteen happy children. The second news story marked her retirement, wherein she explained that she often found herself unable to turn away young working parents who otherwise could not afford childcare. Millie's faith was devout and sincerely pursued. She sought to love God with all her heart and mind, and loved her neighbor as herself. She and Art were active church members at Refton Evangelical United Brethren in Christ Church and later charter members of Lampeter United Methodist Church after a merger of the two. Over the years, Millie served on numerous committees, was an active member of the Women's Society, and regularly taught Sunday School and Vacation Bible School. Outside of church, she also volunteered with Meals on Wheels for many years. As her children reached adulthood and her babysitting career began to wind down, Millie found more time to direct toward her love of gardening, garage sale shopping with family, and early morning walks with friends. Millie is survived by her children, George Eshleman of Lancaster, Susan Kahler and husband, Steve of Willow Street, Andrew Eshleman and wife Alice Gates, of Portland, OR, Amy Johnson, and husband Bruce of Coatesville, and Randy Hess and wife, Karen of Newton, NC.; five grandchildren; and one great granddaughter. In addition to her parents and husband, Arthur C. Eshleman (1994), Millie was predeceased by siblings: Robert Mull, Pauline (Peg) Shuffelbottom, Carl Mull, and Helen Lombardo. The family will receive guests at a viewing to be held from 6-8 PM on Wednesday evening, December 13th, at the Charles F. Snyder Funeral Home and Crematory, 414 E King Street, Lancaster, PA, and from 10-11 AM on Thursday, December 14, at Lampeter United Methodist Church, 1101 Village Road, Lampeter, PA, where funeral services will begin at 11:00 AM. Interment will follow at Riverview

Memorial Park, Lancaster. In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts in Millie's memory may be offered to Lampeter United Methodist Church at the above address, The American Cancer Society, (Lancaster Sunday News 12/10/2017)

THE CHARTION HERALD-PATRIOT Chariton, Iowa, Thursday, July 10, 1913

GEORGE FRANKLIN HOMSER

The many friends of the family will learn with sorrow of the death of Frank Homsher, which occurred at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Homsher, in this city, on Monday morning, July 7th, 1913, at the age of thirty-one years, nine months and twenty-seven days, after an illness of several months with tuberculosis. Funeral services, conducted by Rev. M. C. Lorimor, were held at the parental George Homsher home on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Chariton cemetery. George Franklin Homsher, second son of George and Emma Homsher, was born in Chariton, Iowa, on September 10th, 1881. He was united in marriage in Des Moines on October 22d, 1904, to Miss Anna Marks. To them three little daughters were born, one of whom passed away in infancy. He is survived by his wife, two little daughters, his parents, five brothers and two sisters, who in their bitter grief will have the deep sympathy of the community. Frank possessed a genial, pleasant disposition, and was ambitious and energetic. Less than a year ago he was apparently in the best of health, but in some manner he contracted tuberculosis of the throat, with which he suffered intensely. A few months ago he and his family went to New Mexico where it was hoped the change of climate would prove beneficial, but it was of no avail and they returned home where he could be surrounded by all his loved ones, and where he could be tenderly cared for. He was well liked by his associates, and his friends, who were innumerable, will deplore his taking away in young manhood when life seemed full of promises.

Child of GEORGE HOMSHER and ANNA MARKS is:

- i. RUTH EVELYN⁹ HOMSHER, b. Nov 12, 1906, Chariton, Lucas County, Iowa; d. Jan 30, 1907, Chariton, Lucas County, Iowa. Burial: Chariton Cemetery, Chariton, Lucas County, Iowa.

THE CHARITON HERALD Chariton, Iowa Thursday, January 31, 1907

LOSE INFANT CHILD

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Homsher mourn the death of their infant daughter, Ruth Evelyn, which occurred yesterday morning after a brief illness. Funeral services will be held at the family home this afternoon at two o'clock, after which interment will take place in the Chariton cemetery. The little one was born November 12, 1906. In their great grief the parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

D. E. Stockton Dies From Severe Wounds Meets Death During Invasion of Normandy, July 26, Is Word Today. Another Kendallville [Indiana] boy has paid the supreme sacrifice for peace and liberty of the world. He is T-5 Dale E. Stockton, aged 26, who died July 26 from wounds received in action. Word of the sad news came in a telegram from the War Department at Washington, D.C. There were no further details but the telegram stated a letter giving additional information would follow. Official word of his death was received here this morning by his wife, the former June Bertsch, residing a mile south of Kendallville. He was united in marriage Feb. 13, 1943. Dale, who was with an infantry signal company as radio operator, figured prominently in the invasion of Normandy. He had been in the armed forces since Oct. 6, 1942, and had been overseas since last February. Prior to his departure for overseas he had been in various training centers. Dale was formerly employed in the insulating and assembly department of the McCray Refrigeration company. He was a young man of pleasing personality, and many friends regret to learn of his death. Surviving besides his wife, are his mother, Mrs. Ella Stockton, and four brothers, Russell and Arthur Stockton, this city; Jerry Stockton, Jacksonville, Fla., and Edwin Stockton somewhere in France.

The Weatherford News, May 6, 1943 MORSE DEAN PIGG DIES IN PLANE CRASH. Tribute was paid here Monday afternoon to Pvt. Morse Dean Pigg, who died last Thursday afternoon when an army training plane crashed at Harlingen Field, Texas, snuffing out the lives of the nine members of the crew. Services were held at the Church of Christ at 4 p.m. with Rev. George Bailer, pastor of the church, in charge. Military burial followed in Greenwood cemetery with soldiers from the army air forces technical training command in Weatherford in charge. Pvt. Pigg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Pigg, long-time Weatherford residents, was on his final training flight at the time he met his death. He was to have graduated following this last flight as an aerial machine gunner. His wings and sergeant's rating, both of which were waiting for him upon completion of Thursday's flight, have been presented to his mother and father. His father is a veteran of the World War I. Details of the accident have not been announced. Is father said that he had been informed that the ship was coming in after a training flight and crashed about a mile from the training school. All members of the nine-man crew were killed. Pvt. Roy Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Scott, who live southeast of Weatherford, talked to Pigg shortly before he took off for the fatal flight. The boys had known each other for many years and were both stationed at Harlingen Field. Pvt. Scott, accompanied by his wife, escorted the body to Weatherford. Pigg was to have been their guest for dinner last Thursday evening. He was born at Ludlow, Mo., but came to Weatherford with his parents when he was two years old. He attended grade school, high school and college in Weatherford. For a year prior to entering the army he was employed at the Cessna aircraft factory in Wichita, Kans. He had served six months and two days in the army. He took his basic training at Buckley Field, Colo., and was transferred to Harlingen Field, Texas march 1 where he became an outstanding aerial machine gunner. Besides his parents he is survived by one brother, Donald Wayne, of Weatherford.

Jonas Hampshire's wife dies in East.

The many old friends of former Wood County Commissioner Jonas H. Hampshire will sympathize with him in the death of his wife. She passed away January fifth at their home on Route three, Salisbury, MD. In her younger days, Mrs. Hampshire taught school in Bloom and Protage townships. She and her husband resided in the vicinity of Jerry City for many years; and it was during that time that Mr. Hampshire served two terms as commissioner of Wood County. The Hampshire's moved from here to a farm near Delaware, Ohio, but since 1919 they have resided near Salisbury, Maryland, where Mr. Hampshire and son, R.H. Hampshire, are engaged in the dairy business and breeding of registered Guernsey cattle. The following clipping is taken from the Salisbury Times; Mrs. Dora L. Hampshire, aged 78, died at her home near Salisbury late Sunday night. She was born in Seneca County, Ohio, the eldest daughter of James H and Mary J. Zeigler. She has lived near Salisbury since 1919. She was noted for her interest and devotedness to religious work. She became a member of the M.E. Church near her home in Wood County, Ohio, early in her youth, later transferring her membership to Grace M.E. Church, Delaware, Ohio. She was one of the organizers of Harmony Sunday School, which later became Harmony Chapel. She is survived by her husband, Jonas H. Hampshire; a son, Roscoe H. Hampshire, a daughter, Mrs. J.W. Jones; five grandchildren, Mary Louise, Ruth, Harold and Donald Hampshire and Paul Jones all of Salisbury; two brothers, Frank Zeigler of Delta, Ohio and James OI Ziegler of Wayne, Ohio and a sister, Ida E. I believe this infant baby boy was the son of Harmonious aka Hiram and Leona (Hampshire) Harnes. Hiram and Leona (spelled Leana in marriage record) were married in Wapello County on June 18, 1889. Other than this baby's gravestone, I have found nothing further on them after they were married. Harmonious aka Hiram was the son of Harmonious Harnes and Mahulda Harnes, who is buried in Pleasant Ridge under the name of Mahulda Hicks. This little one shares a stone with his young uncle, Thurman J. Hampshire. At the bottom of both inscriptions are carved these words: "Gone but not forgotten."

Later he worked at Hestands Pharmacy until it closed in Sherman. Charlie loved the Lord and was a member of First Christian Church in Denison. He was an active member of the church, serving as an Elder Emeritus, making beans for the chili suppers; to being a member of the Golden Oldies he enjoyed the fellowship with all. Most enduring was his love and support of his beloved wife and children. Helen was an artist and he would frame her art and they would travel to many art shows displaying her work. He was so proud of her and his children; he was an excellent role model for all instilling a good work ethic and family values. He lived a life of example and was loved and respected by all who crossed his path. He will be deeply missed by all whose lives he touched. Mr. Owens is survived by his beloved family, daughter, Gayle Owens Burris of Garland, TX. and son, Tom Owens and wife, Phyllis of Edwards, CO.; grandchildren, Jimmy Don Burris and wife, Lisa of McKinney, TX., Barry Burris and wife, Katrina of McKinney, TX., Renee Adair and husband, Ronnie of Dripping Spring, TX., Jennifer Bloess and husband, Brian of Eagle, CO., Gary Kimbro and wife, Kim of Golden, CO. and Laura England of Eagle, CO.; great-grandchildren, Jim Bob Burris, Alex Burris, Christine Clark, Matthew Burris, Rusty Burris, Dusty Burris, Lydia Bloess, Adam Bloess, Chelsea Adair, Kyle Adair, Lane Kimbro, Kate Kimbro and Austin England, and numerous nieces and nephews. Charlie was preceded in death by his parents, beloved wife of 71 years, Helen Owens, and siblings, Jim, Ida, Oleta, Arietta, Monroe, and H. T. Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m., Saturday, October 29, 2011 at First Christian Church with Pastor Steve Chambers officiating. Interment will follow in Cedarlawn Memorial Park in Sherman. Family visitation will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday, October 28, 2011 at Fisher Funeral Home. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made in his name to the Alzheimer's Association. Arrangements are under the direction of Fisher Funeral Home, located at 604 West Main in Denison. Published in The Herald Democrat from October 26 to October 27, 2011

- iii. JOANN VIRGINIA BOWLING, b. Feb 17, 1925, Tonkawa, Kay County, Oklahoma; d. Sep 07, 2011, Sherman, Grayson County, Texas; Burial: Dodson Cemetery, Dodson, Collingsworth County, Texas.
- m. JAMES W. FARRIS, Jan 23, 1943; b. Sep 03, 1923, Texas; d. Mar 13, 2016, Denison, Grayson County, Texas. Burial: Dodson Cemetery, Dodson, Collingsworth County, Texas.

Joann Virginia Farris was born February 17, 1925 in Three Sands Oklahoma third daughter of Thomas J. and Ester Mae Bowling. In 1933 the family moved to Wellington in the Texas Panhandle where Mr. Bowling worked as a laborer until 1936 when he was appointed as Station Agent for the Katy Railroad in the town of Dodson in the area. Joann attended Dodson school until graduation in 1941. During her high school years she met James W. Farris. They were married in the nearby town of Hollis, Oklahoma January 23, 1943. James was in the Army Corps stationed near Dalhart where they began their life together. When her husband was sent overseas to the Southwest Pacific in 1944, Joann returned to Dodson where she and her older sister Janet shared a house since Janet's husband was also in the Pacific War Zone. In October 1944 Joann delivered her first child, a girl who was named Karen Jean. James learned that he had become a father when the last mail was delivered to a ship that was about to join a task force that would land on the island of Leyte in the Philippines. James completed his duties in the Pacific war zone and returned to his loving wife and their child. Two other children, David and Virginia Ann were born to them in 1947 and 1948. This family of five became an Air Force family, serving at bases in Texas, California and overseas bases in the Philippines. At the various bases on which we served, Joann served the needs of Air Force families in many ways as a volunteer with the Red Cross and in Family Services. Now that Joann has departed this earth, she will be missed by the young who loved her for the special attention she gave them, and not so young for the wisdom she imparted, and for their ease with which she exhibited her love of God. She left this earth for a better place September 7, 2011. Memorial service will be at 11 a.m. Saturday, September 10 at the Woods Street Church of Christ, 2100 N. Woods St. Sherman, TX. DENISON - James W. Farris passed away March 13, 2016 at the age of 92. He was preceded in death by his parents, Kate and Julian Farris and his wife of 68 years, Joann Farris, as well as a brother, Dayle Farris who died serving his country in World War II. Mr. Farris is survived by his children, Karen Tendle of Runaway Bay, TX, David Farris and Gennie Ammons both of Sherman, TX, along with his brothers, Don Farris, and Jay Farris and sisters Betty Droby and Judy Bingham. Mr. Farris had six grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. Mr. Farris had an illustrious career of twenty six years in the United States Air Force during the course of which he served in the Pacific Theater in World War II. Following his retirement from the military he received a Masters Degree in Industrial Education and taught school for 10 years including building trades in Bonham, TX where he taught many of our youth how to build a house from the top to bottom. Following his teaching career he started a small contracting business where he built numerous houses in Grayson and Fannin Counties. He served as an advisor to the Sherman School District when they built the new high school and other projects. After his third retirement he and several local veterans developed a plan to open a museum commemorating the history of Perrin Air Force Base. The museum through his and others efforts came to fruition and continues to function to this day. Mr. Farris served as a deacon at the Woods Street Church of Christ for numerous years.

OBITUARY: published in the Park Rapids Enterprise, Thursday, October 29, 1953, Page 7:

John Henry Eells, pioneer resident of Mantrap township died Oct. 16, 1953, from old age infirmities at the age of 74. John, as he was familiarly known to all, had been in poor health for many years, and since the passing of his devoted wife just one year ago, had failed rapidly. John Henry Eells was the youngest child and the last living member of his family. He was born to Nathaniel Edgar Eells and Susan Huss Eells on September 26, 1879 at Gravity, Iowa. The greater share of his younger boyhood was spent at Auburn, Nebraska with his three brothers and one sister. It was there he received his education. He met and married Ethel Mathes on November 5, 1902. To this union four children were born; Cleo, the eldest son, now deceased; Desma of Houston; Katie of the Dorset community; and Millard (Bud) at home. Mr. and Mrs. Eells came to the Mantrap community the Spring of 1917, when most of the land was virgin and in timber. There through hard endeavor and effort they made for themselves a home and place in the community. John and Emma Eells celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home in July of 1952 with the entire Mantrap and Nevis community joining them in the happy festivities. Then, on October 18 of the same year, Mrs. Eells passed away, just one year before the passing of her husband. Mr. Eells is survived by his three children; Bud, Desma Sims and Katie Hearty; eight grandchildren and four great grandchildren, all of whom had been here in July to visit him. There are also several nieces and nephews. Funeral services were held Tuesday, Oct. 20 from the Nevis Church of Christ with Rev. Ronald Keeler officiating. Pallbearers were Lee Pangburn, Gus Kellner, Henry Hanson, Jens Jenson, Togeys Hensel and John Bail, old friends of the family. Interment was made in the Nevis cemetery by the side of his wife and companion of fifty years.

OBITUARY: published in the Park Rapids Enterprise, Thursday, October 30, 1952, page 6:

Funeral Services Held October 22 For Mrs. John Eells

Mrs. Emma Ethel Eells, 69, a resident of Mantrap township for 35 years, died October 18 at St. Joseph's hospital. She had been in ill health for several years, and death was due to a heart ailment. Funeral services were held October 22 from the Nevis Church of Christ. Rev. Calvin Miller officiated at the final rites, and interment was made in the Nevis cemetery. Mrs. Phil Annette and Mrs. Earl Erickson, accompanied by Mrs. Lloyd Dawson on the piano, sang "Rock of Ages", "Sweet By and By", and "Beyond the Sunset". Pallbearers were Russell Severtson, Paul Mastellar, Chris Jensen, John Bail, Gus Kellner, and Henry Hanson. Emma Ethel Mathes, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mathes, was born March 6, 1883 in Mattoon, Illinois. She attended school in Illinois, and on November 5, 1902 was married to John Henry Eells in Auburn, Nebraska. They moved here from Ada in the spring of 1917 and settled on their farm in Mantrap township, where she took an active interest in the community. A member of the Methodist church, she was well known for her generous hospitality and desire to be a good neighbor. Mrs. Eells celebrated her golden anniversary on July 20th with open house and a lawn party for more than 200 guests. She is survived by her husband, John; one son, Millard; two daughters, Mrs. Dan Hearty (Katie) of the Dorset community, and Mrs. Robert Sims (Desma) of Houston; two brothers, Grover Mathes of Minneapolis and Arthur Mathes of Des Moines; nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Out-of-town friends and relatives attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thoreen and Mr. Herbert Hanson of Minneapolis, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Sims of Houston.

ALDA MYRTLE⁸ HUSS (WILLIAM OCTAVIUS⁷, MARGARET⁶ HAMPSHER, JACOB⁵, DANIEL⁴ HAMPSHER, JOHN ADAM³ HAMSCHER, BERNHARD² HAMBSCHER, MATTHEUS¹) was born Aug 09, 1869 in Iowa City, Johnson County, Iowa, and died Aug 07, 1955 in Pond Creek, Grant County, Oklahoma. She married LEOPOLD WILLIAM STROBEL Sep 03, 1890. He was born Aug 24, 1865 in East St. Clair County, Illinois, and died Feb 14, 1949 in Hawley, Grant County, Oklahoma. Burial: Guss Cemetery, Guss, Taylor County, Iowa.

From the Medford Patriot-Star:

Alda Myrtle Huss, eldest daughter of William O. Huss and Florence Irwin, was born at Iowa City, Iowa on August 29, 1869 and departed this life at Pond Creek, Oklahoma, on August 7, 1955, having lived 85 years, 11 months, and 7 days. When she was two years of age her parents moved to a homestead east of the present town of Mount Hope, Kansas, where she grew to womanhood. "At the age of sixteen she joined the Congregational church of Mount Hope where she took an active part. On September 3, 1890 she was married to Lee W. Strobel and lived in the Colwich and Maize [Kansas] area until the opening of the Cherokee Strip, when they made the run, settling on a claim west of Jefferson, known as Crystal Springs neighborhood. They later moved to a farm seven miles southeast of Pond Creek where their family of eight children grew up. The family consisted on three boys and five girls: Orin H. Strobel, deceased in 1945; Valle O. Strobel of Highland, Calif.; Floyd C. Strobel of Wichita, Kans.; Mrs. Effie Shaw, Nash, Okla.; Mrs. Ola Tanton, Pond Creek, Okla.; Mrs. Maude Boyd, Medford, Okla.; Mrs. Florence Widener, Carmen, Okla.; and Mrs. Ferne Scott, Jefferson, Okla. In the summer of 1923 the family moved to a farm northwest of Hawley, Okla., where Mr. and Mrs. Strobel resided until their declining years. Mr. Strobel passed away at Hawley in 1949 and Mrs. Strobel continued to make her home in Hawley until October 1954, when she came to Pond Creek. She is survived by an only brother, Glen O. Huss of Mount Hope, Kans., also seven children, 28 grandchildren, and 27 great grandchildren, also nieces, nephews and many friends. "An only sister, Iva Schoonover, preceded her in death three years earlier. Interment was made in the Pond Creek cemetery. In Appreciation we wish to extend our appreciation to each individual and group for the many expressions of kindness and sympathy, during the illness and death of our mother, Mrs. Myrtle Strobel. To everyone who had any part in making this experience easier to bear, we are very grateful, and may you be blest for the kindness in your hearts. Relatives of Myrtle Strobel

From the Medford (Okla) Patriot Star):

Leopold Wm. Strobel was born August 24, 1865, at East St Louis, Ill., son of Adolph and Margarita Strobel. "His family consisted on one sister and six brothers, all of whom, except on brother, passed away before him. On September 3, 1890, Lee was married to Alda Myrtle Huss of Mount Hope, Kan. They homesteaded a farm west of Jefferson [Okla], later moving to a farm southeast of Pond Creek where the family grew up. In 1923 they moved to a farm east of Vining, Okla. At the time of his death he was living in Hawley, Okla, where he suffered a heart attack and passed from this life on the morning of February 14, 1949, at the age of 83 years, 5 months, 20 days. He was a convert to the Baptist faith in his middle life, and a firm believer in the Golden Rule. He is survived by his wife, Myrtle, of the home; two sons, Valle O. Strobel of Highland, Calif., and Floyd C. Strobel of Wichita, Kan; and five daughters, Mrs. Ward Shaw [Effie] of Nash, Mrs. Ralph Tanton [Ola] of Pond Creek, Mrs. Edgar Boyd [Maude] of Medford, Mrs. Ray Widener [Florence] of Mooreland, and Mrs. Harold Scott [Marjorie Fern] of Jefferson. One other son, Orin H., passed on in 1945. Beside the immediate family circle, he also leaves to mourn his passing 24 grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and a wide circle of friends and neighbors.

"LT. DE GARMO FIRST EARLY [IOWA] MAN KILLED IN WORLD WAR II

A capacity crowd gathered Monday morning at the Sacred Heart Church to pay tribute to Early's first young man to make the supreme sacrifice in this war, Lt. Melvin G. DeGarmo. Melvin Guy, son of Guy and Edna DeGarmo, was born at Early, March 12, 1917, and was reported killed in action November 8, 1944, over Kalemio, Burma. Melvin, better known as "Bub," attended the Early Consolidated School, graduating with the class of 1934. He went into the service of his country in February, 1941, and was stationed at Fort Snelling, Minnesota. He went to Officers' Candidate School at Fort Benning, Georgia, receiving his commission in July, 1942. His first assignment was at Fort Riley, Kansas, with a Military Police Company, and later he was transferred to Headquarters, where he was an instructor in Judo and weapons. In April, 1943, they were moved to Fort Custer, Michigan, where he perfected the DeGarmo functioning board, which was recommended by the Army Field Manual for faster training of men in the use of light and heavy machine guns. In August of 1943 he was transferred to the Air Corps to receive training as a pilot, taking his instruction at various bases in Texas. Lt. DeGarmo received his wings in April, 1944, at Ellington Field, Texas, where he chose the C-47 transport for further training. He left the states October 6 from Florida, and arrived in India October 19. He completed 25 missions in the 17 days from the time of his arrival until the last letter he had written, which was dated November 7. A telegram was received by his wife on November 21, stating he had been killed in action on November 8. Melvin was married February 2, 1942, to Mildred Ihry of Royal, Iowa, who operated a beauty shop in Early for the previous five years. A daughter....was born of this union." From: "This is Early, Iowa 1882-1982, Its First Hundred Years", p 153.

Bush, Elnora Ellen Huss -

A messenger came and called a soul away from this world of sorrow and suffering to a place where pain and parting is not known. This messenger came the morning of August 15th and called away Elnora Bush. She had spent eight long weeks of suffering, nursed and cheered by her loving husband who kept constant watch over her and saw that all was done that was possible to keep her at his side. Elnora Ellen Huss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Huss, was born August 31, 1885, near Gravity, Iowa, and passed away at her home near Clearfield August 15, 1925, at the age of 39 years, 11 months and 15 days. She spent her girlhood days near Gravity and grew to womanhood winning the affection of Lawrence Bush to whom she was married Oct. 12, 1904. They founded their new home in their home community where they resided until 1908 at which time they moved to Oklahoma for four years, returning to the old home community in 1913 where they resided until moving to the Clearfield community seven years ago. God blessed them with four children, Howard, Maxine, Wade, and Marguerite. They will miss their mother and her care but she blessed them many days, which memory will guide them through life. Mrs. Bush possessed a wonderful spirit of pouring out to others. Even in her extreme sickness in the hospital she was anxious about the other patients, forgetting herself. She bore her suffering without complaint, anxious that she might not tire those who cared for her. She realized she could not recover and talked of her leaving with her husband and children. She talked to her to accept her [line missing] Spirit, bringing peace to her soul and joy to others. She was not only a wonderful wife and mother but a friend and neighbor to all who knew her, ever ready to do the right and render service. She is gone but memory lingers to remind us of her life and character. Besides her husband and children she leaves to mourn her loss four sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Lottie Kimpton of Gravity; Mrs. Edith Jones of Gravity; Mrs. Beulah Lewellen of Novary, Mont.; Miss Eva Huss of Des Moines; Lewis B. Huss and Robt. A. Huss, both of Gravity, besides a host of relatives and friends. Elnora Ellen "Pudge" Huss was born on August 31, 1885 in Holt Township, Taylor County, Iowa to Charles Albert and Belle Ellen (Posten) Huss. They had seven children: Lottie Mae, Lewis Bertrain, Elnora Ellen, Edith Mable, Beulah Belle, Robert Albert, and Eva Mary. She was married in 1904 to Lawrence Bush. They had five children: Howard Charles, Maxine Eula, Wado Risen, Marguerite Belle and Mary Belle. She passed away on August 15, 1925 in Ringgold County, Iowa.

Children of ELNORA HUSS and LAWRENCE BUSH are:

- i. HOWARD CHARLES⁹ BUSH.
- ii. MAXINE EULA BUSH.

- iii. WADE RISEN BUSH.
- iv. MARGUERITE BELLE BUSH.
- v. MARY BELLE BUSH.

Obituary for Frederick Lee Homsher

Frederick L. Homsher, 79, of Wyomissing, died Friday, September 15th in Fairfax, VA surrounded by his family. Born on March 21, 1938 to Irene Hensel Homsher and Joseph B. Homsher, Fred grew up in Baltimore, MD before moving to Wyomissing Hills in 1951. He graduated from Wyomissing High School in 1955. Fred attended Lehigh University where he played Varsity Baseball and his senior year was team captain and MVP. He graduated in 1959 with a degree in Metallurgical Engineering and began his career with Carpenter Steel (CarTech) as a metallurgist. Fred remained with the company for 32 years, traveling internationally and leading a team to bring a Rotary Forge online, a project of which he was very proud. He was a member of the American Society of Metals. On July 23, 1960 at Atonement Lutheran Church Fred married Barbara Koch of Wyomissing Hills. Over the years he was active in the Reading Junior Chamber of Commerce, serving on the Board of Directors, played American Legion baseball, was a two-term Wyomissing Hills Borough Council Member, Chair of the Wyomissing Hills Recreation Board; and President of the Southeastern Lehigh University Alumni Club. Fred was an avid sports fan who loved attending his children's and grandchildren's sporting events. He also loved to hunt and fish, spending many hours with family and special friends in the woods and on his boat. He reveled in his nickname "Clyde the Guide." After a rewarding career at CarTech, Fred retired at the young age of 52. In retirement he and Barbara spent most of their summers at the family cottage in Blue Sea Lake, Quebec, Canada. They went on many wonderful trips and drove up and down the mid-Atlantic cheering on their grandchildren at sporting events and supporting their academic endeavors. Fred became active in the CarTech retirement group and supported Barbara in her extensive volunteer work. His greatest joy was spending time with extended family and friends. Fred is survived by his wife of 57 years Barbara (Koch) Homsher, his brother Joseph B. Homsher, children Cindy Homsher Wildermuth and husband Robin, Pam Homsher Promisel and husband Andy, and Peter Homsher, 7 grandchildren; Claire Wildermuth Sadler and husband Tom, Chad Wildermuth, Grace Wildermuth, Michael Promisel and wife Marlee, Jake Promisel, David Promisel and Caroline Homsher, and great grandson Lincoln Sadler. He is also survived by brother-in-law, Henry M. Koch, Jr., and wife Pattie. A Celebration of Life will be held at 11 AM on Saturday, September 30, 2017 at Atonement Lutheran Church, 5 Wyomissing Blvd., Wyomissing, PA 19610. A Visitation will be held from 10 – 11 AM in the church. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Fred's memory to The Wyomissing Area Education Foundation, 630 Evans Ave., Reading, PA 19610. Edward J. Kuhn Funeral Homes, Inc. is entrusted with the arrangements. .

Washington Post, The (DC) - September 2, 2004 Deceased Name: Journalist Gifford D. Hampshire, 80 Gifford Dean Hampshire, 80, who for many years was a magazine editor and writer in the Washington area, died of congestive heart failure Aug. 30 at his Fairfax home. Mr. Hampshire moved to the area in 1954 as an assistant illustrations editor for National Geographic. He later worked for Al Hayat, a magazine produced for the Arabic-speaking world by the U.S. Information Agency. He also worked as a writer and editor for the Food and Drug Administration and the Environmental Protection Agency. Mr. Hampshire was born in Fort Dodge, Iowa, where his father was principal of the junior high school until he lost his job during the Depression. While his father looked for work in the 1930s, Mr. Hampshire lived with uncles who were wheat farmers in western Kansas and Oklahoma, in the center of the Dust Bowl. Photographs of that era, commissioned by Roy Stryker of the Farm Security Administration, would later inspire Mr. Hampshire's work as a photo editor. Mr. Hampshire graduated from high school in Liberal, Kan., and was drafted into the Army Air Forces in June 1943. He saw combat in the southwestern Pacific with the 868th Heavy Bomb Squadron of the 13th Army Air Force. He was wounded over the Celebes Islands, now known as Sulawesi, when his lone B-24 was attacked by Japanese "Oscars" aircraft. He finished the war on Okinawa, flying with his crew until the armistice. Mr. Hampshire then enrolled in the University of Missouri School of Journalism, graduating in 1949. He started his journalism career with Fairchild Camera and Instrument Corp. in Syosset, N.Y., where he launched Impressions, a quarterly magazine for photojournalists. Later, he was the company's manager of press relations and director of corporate public relations. During his five years at National Geographic, Mr. Hampshire researched and directed photo assignments, edited and selected photos for publication and supervised some 20 stories annually through the magazine's layout process. He joined Al Hayat in 1959 as associate editor. A year later, he left that position to become public information officer at the Food and Drug Administration, where he launched FDA Papers, the first government monthly magazine to use four-color photos. He later was a speechwriter for FDA commissioners and served as chief medical writer. Mr. Hampshire joined the EPA when the agency was created in 1970. He served with Administrator William D. Ruckelshaus as a public information officer and was deputy in charge of communications. In 1972, he developed Project Documerica, a program to photograph America's environmental concerns in the documentary tradition of the FSA Depression-era photos. More than 120 photographers contributed to the project. "Documerica" was first exhibited at the Corcoran Gallery of Art in August 1972. That exhibition was followed by "Our Only World," a Smithsonian Institution exhibition that toured the country. The images from the two exhibits are on file at the National Archives and were included in a 1999 National Archives exhibit, "Picturing the Century." Mr. Hampshire left government service in 1980 and worked for the next six years as a consultant for the private and public sectors on projects involving editorial/public relations and photography. He was one of the visual information experts who served on a panel for the National Endowment for the Arts that evaluated photographers for government jobs. In retirement, he wrote three unpublished novels, as well as a book of family history. Survivors include his wife of 52 years, Mary Elizabeth Hampshire of Fairfax; two children, Gifford Ray Hampshire of Fairfax and Victoria Anna Hampshire of Bethesda; a brother; and four grandchildren.

The Ottumwa Courier May 14, 2006 The red flower of remembrance, honor By Cindy Toopes, Courier Staff Writer OTTUMWA — One more May flower has yet to greet your eye — the red poppy. You'll soon see this paper flower. The volunteers of O.B. Nelson American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 3 in Ottumwa will distribute the handcrafted poppies May 23-28, which they've designated as Poppy Week. Five longtime auxiliary members recently shared memories about Poppy Week and auxiliary service. Together they represent 171 years of service. The Ottumwa women are Ione Besco, who has 48 years of service; Bettie Emery, 45; Arvella Pottorff, 38; Norma Heckart, 23; and Joleen Stevenson, 17. Planned to coincide with the Memorial Day holiday, Poppy Week pays tribute to those veterans who have died in the last 80 years. The special week also honors the millions of Americans who have willingly served their country in eight decades. All proceeds from the distribution of poppies are invested in local programs for the benefit of veterans and their families. This year's chairman of the Poppy Program is Judy Agee of Ottumwa. "We don't sell the poppy — we distribute them for a donation," Ione said. "When kids come along and wonder what the poppy is for, I just give them one," Bettie said. "Some folks are real generous. We smile and give everyone a nice greeting." The women said each nine-piece poppy is made by veterans for veterans in auxiliary-sponsored Poppy Shops that supplement physical and psychological therapy needed by hospitalized and disabled veterans. The auxiliary provides materials and volunteers and the hospitalized veteran makes the poppy. He or she is paid a small amount for each painstakingly made flower. For some veterans, making poppies is the only income they have. The Poppy Program has been part of the Legion Auxiliary's programming for more than 70 years. National officials have estimated that about 25 million Americans wear the poppy to honor America's war dead and veterans and contribute more than $2 million for rehabilitation and welfare programs. But, things could, and should, be better, according to these auxiliary members. The local women don't approve of the way the U.S. government treats veterans, particularly those who must stay at the veterans' hospitals. Joleen handles monthly birthday parties at the Knoxville facility. "There are two wards there. Most of those veterans never leave the ward," she said. "Many of our hospitalized veterans are just lying in bed," Norma said. "These aren't good conditions for what they went through." "The public needs to realize how badly they are taking care of our veterans," Arvella said. "We buy stamps for the veterans, toiletries, slippers, and anything else we can to help them." In addition to distributing poppies, the Legion Auxiliary also offers Poppy Plates and Poppy Wreaths. For a $1 donation, you can have a Poppy Plate posted on the wall at the American Legion, 550 W. Main St. One side will be for the living and the other side is for memorials, according to Joleen. "You don't have to be a veteran to have a Poppy Plate," she added. Arvella has made so many wreaths that they call her "the wreath lady." The auxiliary puts memorial wreaths in nine spots — Calvary, Jewish, Ottumwa (2), Shaul, Catholic, and Brook cemeteries, and Central Park. "In Ottumwa Cemetery, we put one on the Court Street side and one in the veterans area," Arvella said. The women represent an older generation and they worry that today's younger generations don't know what the little red paper flower means. "But, many old folks don't know what it is, either," Ione said. "It's the veterans' poppy, like the ones in the poppy fields at Flanders, France, during World War I." If you search the Internet, you'll find the story of Flanders Field and Colonel John McCrae, a Canadian who was a professor of medicine at McGill University, Canada, before World War I. He is credited with first describing the red poppy as the flower of remembrance in his 1915 poem, "In Flanders Poppy was adopted in 1920 as the American Legion's national emblem of remembrance. Unemployed and disabled veterans began to make the poppies in 1922. The Legion Auxiliary assumed the poppy Field," written after a shell burst killed his young friend and former student. The Flanders Field Memorial manufacturing and distribution in 1924. Of the five local women who work tirelessly for the auxiliary, Joleen is the youngest — she's only 70. All the women wish younger ones would join the auxiliary, which works in the areas of Americanism, children and youth programs, community service, education, veterans' legislative issues, national security awareness and veterans affairs and rehabilitation. The American Legion was founded by representatives of the American Expeditionary Force at a caucus March 15-17, 1919, in Paris, France, (four months after the World War I victory). The Ottumwa Post was also chartered in 1919, with the late Edward Steller serving as the first local commander. The Ottumwa Post is named for an Ottumwa World War I hero. Captain Oscar B. Nelson (1880-1918) received numerous posthumous medals and awards for his courage Oct. 16, 1918, in northeastern France, as a member of Ottumwa's Company G, part of the 168th Infantry, 42nd ("Rainbow") Division that pursued the St. Mihiel offensive. THELMA IRENE⁹ APPLE (MARY DELILAH⁸ FREDERICK, RACHEL⁷ HAMPSHIRE, JONAS WASHINGTON⁶, BARNET JR.⁵, BARNET⁴ HAMPSHER, JOHN ADAM³ HAMSCHER, BERNHARD² HAMBSCHER, MATTHEUS¹) was born Jun 10, 1904 in Hoytville, Wood County, Ohio, and died Feb 27, 1988 in Wood County, Ohio. Burial: Bethel Cemetery, Hancock County, Ohio. She married WESLEY R. LONG. He was born Jan 22, 1903 in Lane, Dewitt County, Illinois, and died Jun 11, 1985 in Hoytville, Wood County, Illinois. Burial: Bethel Cemetery, Hancock County, Ohio.

Thelma was the wife of Wesley R. LONG, Sr.. Their children were Wesley R. LONG, Jr., Elmer Elwood LONG and Darlene Faith (LONG)WEAVER.

The passing of Thelma Long was a sudden severe shock to everyone. Jake Weaver, son-in-law, found her in her home Sunday February 27 when her family was unable to reach her by telephone. She evidently passed away while she was preparing her meal. Thelma, a beloved mother, grandmother, friendly neighbor had spent her entire life in this area. She was born to George and Mary (Frederick) Apple and spent her early life in their home on the corner of Range Line and Oil Center Roads known as Pedro Corners. She attended elementary school near by, but attended Hoytville high school coming by horse and buggy, stopping along the way to get her friend, Chloe Dell Foltzin Brown, who lived on Needles Road. Prior to 1921 the Arie Long family came from Illinois and settled on the farm, the present Ohio experiment farm. Among the Longs was a son, Wesley, and it was inevitable that neighbors would become friends and it wasn't long before Wesley and Thelma began dating friendship led to romance and romance marriage which took place in 1921. The newlyweds settled their home in this area and finally in the home on Mulberry Street, Hoytville where there they continued to live until their deaths. Three children were born to this couple; Wesley, Jr. who is deceased; Elmer Elwood, Scotch Ridge and Darlene Weaver, Deshler. Thelma was a devoted mother. Many of us remember when Darlene was a young girl and suffered a cut case of rheumatic fever. Recuperation covered a long period of time entirely recovered completely. It was said that this came about because of the loving and devoted care of her mother. The recuperation was slow and demanded her bed care. When the first signs of improvement were noticed Thelma sent word to S. S. members that Darlene was well enough to sit up and all who wish could come and see Darlene from the street. Time took care of things and Darlene married Jake Weaver and is the mother of five children and grandmother of two great-granddaughters. Thelma seemed especially happy the last few years. She had suffered lots of her husband, Wes, & Wes Jr. within a period of six months and she was in the deepest sorrow as only a wife and mother knows. She related that she could hardly endure things so she went to prayer and told the Lord she couldn't overcome this alone. The change in feeling was felt in she now is in the hands of the father who gave her a happier feeling. Thelma was so proud of her three children, 13 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren. She was a devoted fan and of all athletic events especially those in which are gradually were involved. She was so proud of their accomplishments and shared their special events with us. Thelma had been a faithful member of the local church for over 60 years as well as the friendship class. She was a member of the ladies literary club. Thelma loved life, her family, her friends, church, neighbors and the village of quite well. She will certainly be missed that although the all those who knew her, what is our losses heavens gain. - Hoytville Methodist Church

Roy Hampshire Is Dead At Age Of 51

Foreman at Auburn Foundry Passes Away at Sanders Hospital after an Illness from Heart Ailment Roy Hampshire, 51, a veteran of World War I and a foreman at the Auburn Foundry, Inc., died at 9:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Dr. J. A. Sanders hospital in Auburn of a heart ailment. He had been suffering from the heart disease for about two years. He was admitted to the hospital Sunday night, being taken from his home at 405 Phillips street. A native of Putnam county, Ohio, Mr. Hampshire had resided in Auburn for nearly 20 years. He and his wife, the former Ruth Nichols of Hamilton, had previously resided for seven years in Garrett. He was born March 8, 1896, the son of John E. and Mary E. Hampshire, both deceased. Surviving besides the widow, are a daughter, Mrs. Phyllis Frey of Fort Wayne; two sons, Roy, Jr., and H. Calvin, both at home; two brothers, Jonas Hampshire, also a resident at 405 Phillips street, and S. Frank Hampshire of Mitchell, S.D.; three sisters, Mrs. Grover Likens of near Auburn, Mrs. Jack Richardson of near Waterloo and Mrs. Carl Williams of Continental, O., and one grandson, David Marshall Frey. Mr. Hampshire was a member of the American Post 97 of Auburn and the Eagles lodge of Garrett. 659. LUCILLE "MAXINE"⁹ HAMSHER (VERNON⁸, ANDREW JACKSON⁷, CHARLES LEWIS⁶, JOHN PETER⁵, DANIEL⁴, JOHN ADAM³ HAMSCHER, BERNHARD² HAMBSCHER, MATTHEUS¹) was born Aug 14, 1919 in Parsons, Labette County, Kansas, and died Feb 26, 2015 in Alaska. Burial: Birch Hill Cemetery, Fairbanks, Fairbanks North Star Borough, Alaska. She married (1) HOWARD TAGGART. She married (2) LLOYD C. BURNETT. He was born Jun 15, 1919 in Jasper County, Missouri, and died Jun 06, 1973 in Jasper County, Missouri. Burial: Dudman Cemetery, Sarcxie, Jasper County, Missouri.

Alaska pioneer and Fairbanks icon Lucille "Maxine" Thayer, 95, passed away on Thursday, Feb. 26, 2015. She was a beloved mother, grandmother and sister. A celebration of life and pot luck will be from 1 p.m. - 4 p.m. on Saturday, March 7, 2015, at the Ninilchik Senior Center. Maxine was born on Aug. 14, 1919, to Elva and Vern Hamsher in Parsons, Kan., and was raised in Carthage, Mo. Maxine was the oldest of nine children and has been the heart and backbone of her family her entire life. As a young girl, Maxine worked hard on the farm with her father. As the oldest child, Maxine was expected to work as if she were the oldest boy in the family and her father nicknamed her "Billy," which he called her all his life. As the oldest in the family, Maxine worked hard to help provide for her family once she left home. She told stories of the long hours working on the farm as a young girl and then stories of sending almost everything she earned home to her mother on a weekly basis for many years after she left home. Maxine moved to Anchorage, Alaska, in 1950, and operated the Star Cafe and Star Motel for five years. Maxine also operated the Star Cafe in Whittier, Alaska, during that time. In 1960, Maxine and her husband, Howard, moved to Fairbanks, Alaska. They bought the Pastime Bar and owned a beauty Shop from 1961 to 1983, on the corner of First Avenue and Cushman Street. In the 20 years of operating the Pastime Bar and Beauty Shop, Maxine's extended family grew to her regular customers. Every year she would open her house to have big Thanksgiving and Christmas Parties. Maxine was known in Fairbanks for helping out anyone who was in need and became an icon in the community that everyone could count on. This proved to be a life-long trait that never went away. Maxine was always available to help anyone in need at any given moment. She loved her family and friends with her whole heart and stopped at nothing to help anyone out. In 1997, Maxine moved from Fairbanks to Ninilchik, Alaska. She loved fishing for Burbot in Fairbanks and Kings and Silvers on the Kasilof and Ninilchik Rivers. Maxine is preceded in death by her parents, Vern and Elva Hamsher; son, Jay Dee Taggart; sisters, Virginia Burnett, Freda Spence, Greta Murphy; brothers Virgil, Richard and Charles Hamsher. She leaves behind a sister, Phyllis Pickett; brother, Keith Hamsher both of Missouri; son and daughter-in-law, Wayne and Ruth Taggart of Ninilchik; grandchildren, Pamela Taggart of Arizona, Amber Glenzel and husband, Eric of Soldotna, Alaska, Terri Williams, Tammy Draper and Tina Zook all of California, Jeff and Aaron Brees of Anchorage and Mark Brees and Carol Harrington of Ninilchik; great-grandchildren, Christina, Ryan and Denali Glenzel of Soldotna, Alaska, Cody Williams, Kyle Meek, Adrienne Zook and Johnny Zook all of California, Destiny Brees, Dannielle, Rebecca and Travis Harrington all of Las Vegas, N.V., and Skyler Brees of Anchorage; and numerous great-great-grandchildren. No Recent Word of Missing Dodson Airman

No additional information has been received since the close of the war regarding First Lt Elba Hunt, who has been listed as missing in action since May 26, when he took part in a B-29 raid near Tokyo, Japan. Lt Hunt, the son of Gilbert and Ruth Hunt and his wife, the former Jeannette Bowling and a small son also live at Dodson. Pilot of a B-29 he had made 14 missions. It is presumed that his plane went down over the target. The 25 year old flyer had lived at Dodson all of his life. Upon graduating from high school there, he attended Texas Technological College at Lubbock for almost four years, entering the Air Force in 1942, shortly before he received his degree. He was commissioned in Florida and was stationed in the United States until December 1944, when he went to the Pacific theater. One of Dodson's outstanding young men, he was a leader during both his high school and college years. His brother-in-law Dayle Farris has been listed as missing in action in Germany since last November. A brother, Pfc. Howard Hunt returned in September after serving in Europe. Other brothers and sisters are Vance Hunt, Mrs. Dayle Farris, Marilyn Hunt, Billy Dale Hunt, Kenneth Dean Hunt, all of Dodson.

Floyd Forse Teutsch was born on March 25, 1921 in Chireno. After a lengthy illness, he died peacefully on April 20, 2006. He was a Lubbock resident at the time of his death and a member of the Greatest Generation. Pappy, as family and friends affectionately called him, was the second son born to Marvin Henry and O'Leavy Josephine Teutsch. He spent his life pursuing a variety of occupations. He was a bank president in Dodson, a real estate agent in Plainview and Lubbock and spent his later working years buying oil leases in the entire eastern United States from Mississippi to Pennsylvania. His hobbies included hunting, fishing (especially with his grandchildren), and traveling. He graduated from Dodson High School in 1939 and worked as a cashier at the First State Bank immediately following his graduation. He served in Europe as a member of the US Army during World War II. While serving as a Master Sergeant with the 1172nd Engineer Combat Group during Northern France and Rhineland Campaigns he earned the EAME Campaign Medal with two Bronze Stars, the Good Conduct Medal, Victory Medal, and three Overseas Service Bars. He went into service on May 25, 1943 and left on Dec 30, 1945. He is survived by one brother, Thomas Teutsch of Washington, D.C.; two sons, Ronald Teutsch of Richardson and Michael Teutsch of Lubbock; one daughter, Nancy Chennai of Peoria, AZ; one daughter-in-law, Judy McLeman of Copperas Cove; ten grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. He is preceded in death by his parents; wife, Jeanette; a brother, Tucker; a sister, Mammies; stepson, Glenn Hunt; and a grandson, Guy Floyd Chennai. Family and friends remember him for a number of reasons. They include the advice he shared from his wisdom learned through many life experiences, his continual desire to help those closest to him and warmth of his caring nature. He will be greatly missed and is still deeply loved.

676. FRANCES CLEO⁹ IHRY (NELLIE MARY⁸ HUSS, JACOB NOAH⁷, MARGARET⁶ HAMPSHER, JACOB⁵, DANIEL⁴ HAMPSHER, JOHN ADAM³ HAMSCHER, BERNHARD² HAMBSCHER, MATTHEUS¹) was born Aug 20, 1919 in Royal, Clay County, Iowa, and died Mar 28, 2014. Burial: North Lawn Cemetery, Spencer, Clay County, Iowa. She married THOMAS HENRY GARROD Sep 23, 1939 in Cherokee, Iowa. He was born Feb 10, 1920 in Washta, Cherokee County, Iowa, and died Jul 21, 2010. Burial: North Lawn Cemetery, Spencer, Clay County, Iowa.

Cleo Frances Ihry was born August 120, 1919 on a farm west of Royal, Iowa, to Jean Baptist and Nellie (Huss) Ihry. She attended elementary school and received her high school diploma from Royal, Iowa. Soon after, she graduated from Sioux City Academy of Cosmetology. She started her first beauty shop in Washta, Iowa and there she met Thomas Garrod. They were united in marriage on September 23, 1939 and lived in Cherokee, Iowa. Still as a newlywed bride, she was left anxiously awaiting the return of Tom who was serving overseas during World War II. Upon his return they reunited in love and together in loyalty their lives took them to several destinations. During this time their family expanded with the arrival of three girls, Sharon, Lynda and Connie. In each destination Cleo established a beauty shop. Besides her daughters, many clients appreciated not only her pin curls and sets but also her charismatic demeanor. As Tom and Leo's family grew from three girls to three son-in-laws, nine grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren, their social activities grew too. Tom and Cleo actively attended their families music concerts, drama and acting performances, speech and various sporting events. Cleo enjoyed bowling, playing bridge and hosting other card clubs. Together with Tom she enjoyed traveling, dancing and golfing. Among many cherished memories held by her family and other acquaintances she will be remembered most for her Catholic faith and her devotion to the rosary.

Thomas Garrod was born February 10, 1920 in Washta, Iowa to Tim and Martha (Small) Garrod. Tom grew up in that small community surrounded by family and friends. Tom married Cleo Ihry on September 23, 1939. They made their home in Cherokee and shortly after Tom left to serve his country as a part of the army during W.W.II. He was sent overseas and returned to the states due to wounds he sustained while serving in France. Tom lead an active and adventurous life as a store manager, implement salesman, farmer, postmaster, a 4th Degree Knight of Columbus, Legionnaire and member of V.F.W. He always enjoyed sharing with his children and grandchildren stories of his childhood. Faith, family, cars and the open road were always important in his life. Grateful for having shared his life are his wife, Cleo; three daughters: Sharon (Terry) Schnetter, Lynda (Bill) Fettes and Connie (Bill) Honkomp; nine grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be held 10:30 A.M., Monday, July 26, 2010 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Spencer with Father William Schreiber officiating. Interment will follow at North Lawn Memorial Park, Spencer, Iowa.
